Romulus Public Housing Commission Opens Units

Open House Set For This Friday

Constructing Total of 101
Apartments in UR Area

BY HENRY CANTIN
ANP Staff Writer

ROMULUS—Acceptance of residency applications for Romulus Township Public Housing Units will get underway next Monday, Nov. 24, Donald Harris, executive director of Romulus Public Housing Commission, has announced.

Romulus Township's initial public housing project, approved by United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, will have 101 units, located in the Wayne-Beverly Urban Renewal Area.

The first five model units have been completed at Chamberlain and Avon, south of Van Buren Road.

AN OPEN HOUSE will be held at the models this Friday, Nov. 21, during the hours of 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Harris announced.

Applications will be available at one of the models now being used as a temporary office. Information on the Public Housing Program and unit rental will be available.

Additional housing units will be made available as construction of them progresses.

All of the 101 apartments are scheduled for completion by the summer of 1970.

The units will range in size from one to five bedrooms. Those having one to three bedrooms will be housed in two-family duplexes. And units with four to five bedrooms will be free standing single family homes.

The Urban American Land Development Company of Flint is the builder of the housing apartments, Harris stated.

THERE WILL be in all 68 buildings. These buildings,

BANQUET COMMITTEE—The New Boston Rotary Club is planning to honor the athletes of Huron High School and present awards in appreciation of their fine spirit of sportsmanship. The Football Banquet Committee selected to handle arrangements are left to right Elwood Krzyzke, Edwin Pichan, David Court and Ralph Dugan, Chairman.

BANQUET DEC. 4

New Boston Rotary Club To Honor Huron Athletes

NEW BOSTON—The New Boston Rotary Club is busy these days making plans to honor the Huron High School Football Varsity and Reserve teams.

The Rotarians make this an annual event after the football season.

This year the banquet will be held at St. John's Lutheran Church Hall, located in Waltz, on Thursday, Dec. 4 at 6:30 p.m.

RALPH DUGAN, banquet chairman, has Elwood Krzyzke, Edwin Pichan and Dave Court on his committee.

Each committee member has been assigned a certain task. Plans call for Ronald Pichan, Huron High School alumni, and former baseball star to be the guest speaker.

The Ladies Aid of St. John's Church will prepare the dinner. The Rotary Club will honor approximately 34 players and four of the coaches.

HONORS AND AWARDS will be made by the coaches. Parents and friends are welcomed to attend the banquet. Tickets may be obtained from any of the New Boston Rotarians, or by calling 782-2461 and reserve a place at the banquet.

Ralph Dugan, chairman, said:

"Everyone here in Huron Township should be proud of the Huron School Football Team's performance. The kids gave us (the audience) a good show on how working together as a team, brings results.

"You as an interested parent or citizen can show the boys and their coaches that you appreciate their efforts on the field by paying them respect with your presence at the banquet."

Trial is Ordered In Killing

ROMULUS—Mrs. Alberta N. Grames, 22, of 9321 Chamberlain, was ordered held for Wayne County Circuit Court trial on charges of second degree murder in the fatal shooting of her husband, Kenneth, 25.

District Judge James B. Stone of the 34th District Court ordered Mrs. Grames bound over for trial following a preliminary examination on the charges held on Nov. 13.

Mrs. Grames' bond of $2,500 set at her arraignment was continued pending trial.

Kenneth Grames was found by police sitting on the living room sofa with a gunshot wound in the chest on Oct. 27 at 10:29 a.m.

He was pronounced dead shortly after his arrival by Superior ambulance at the Wayne County General Hospital. Mrs. Grames called police.

Jaycee Community Involvement Month

ROMULUS—The Romulus Jaycees are joining with more than 6,400 other Jaycee Chapters across America in observing November as U.S. Jaycee Community Involvement Month.

Roderick E. Smith, supervisor of Romulus Township has proclaimed November as Community Involvement Month.

The observance is an annual one, celebrated by the Jaycees who state as their purpose "Creating Environment for Change Through People".

AS PART of this program, the Romulus Jaycees will hold a Christmas Shopping Tour and Puppet Show for over one hundred (100) less fortunate children in Romulus.

Harold Ramm of Dearborn will perform his world famous marionette Christmas show for these children.

The new Jaycee Christmas Program this year is among the most admirable ever undertaken by a volunteer, civic, or service organization and has drawn the praise of leading authorities across Michigan.

THE ROMULUS JAYCEE organization, in its 25th year of existence, is open to young men between the age of 21 and 36.

CITES BASIC RULES

'Defensive Driving' is Explained By 34th District Judge Stone

BY JAMES B. STONE
34th DISTRICT COURT

In last week's appeal to teenage drivers, I suggested that they drive defensively. In this issue, I would like to explain, "Defensive Driving" to young and older drivers alike.

Contrary to some opinions, being defensive behind the wheel is not a matter of getting out in front of the other vehicles on the highway so that you might stay out of their way. Nor is it considered defensive to lag along, letting the other drivers find a route around you and hope that they don't strike your vehicle in the process.

Genuinely defensive drivers keep pace with the traffic around them and are constantly alert for the unexpected antics of their fellow motorists. They are the drivers who not only know what they are doing, but seem also to know what others are about to do.

THIS KNOWLEDGE is not the result of any form of mental telepathy. It is, however, the adherence to five basic rules of defensive driving that anyone can (Continued on Page 3)

Huron Valley Junior Miss Receives Crown Saturday

ROMULUS—The 1970 Huron Valley Junior Miss is to be crowned this Saturday, Nov. 22.

This annual Junior Miss Pageant, sponsored by the Romulus Jaycees, will be held in Romulus Junior High School, located at 11401 Olive Street, beginning at 6 p.m.

The Junior Miss chosen will represent Romulus and Huron Townships at the Regional Pageant to be held in Holly, Mich., later this year.

IN THIS year's contest for Junior Miss there are seven contestants. Entry deadline was Nov. 12. The young Junior Misses competing are: Arleen Bullard, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bullard of 18500 Hannan Road.

Remona Lewis, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lewis of 6334 Hunt Street.

Susan Bonam, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bonam of 6049 North Wayne Road.

Emelia Lucille Landini, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Landini of 30870 Van Buren Road.

Linda Washington, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Washington of 6247 East Edmund Street.

Linda Baston, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mercado of 32142 Bruce Street.

Catherine Wilson, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson of 38339 Walnut Street.

THE SELECTION of Junior Miss is based on her showing in five categories. They are: Mental Alertness, 35 percent; Scholastic Achievement, 15 percent; Poise and Appearance, 15 percent; Youth Fitness, 15 percent; and Creative and Performing Arts, 20 percent, announced Leonard Folmar and Charles J. Dick, Jr., general chairmen of this year's Junior Miss Program.

Judges that will decide the winner are:

Larry Davis, of Larry's Styling Studio, Romulus; Carlos Falcon, financial aid counselor at Eastern Michigan University; and Miss Judy Rinne, music teacher of New Boston.

MISS CHARLOTTE BEANUM, the 1969 Huron Valley Junior Miss, will crown the new Junior Miss, who will receive a scholarship to Eastern Michigan University and a trophy.

The runner-up will receive a United States Government Savings Bond.

Admittance to the Junior Miss Pageant is $1.

This year's Mistress of Ceremonies will be Mrs. Jean Van Dine, 1963 Junior Miss.

Funds Studied for Sumpter Students

BELLEVILLE—The Airport, Huron and Van Buren School Districts will get $138,000 to help them through another year of absorbing students from the now defunct Sumpter School District, if a State Senate bill is passed this year.

State Senator William P. Faust (D-Westland), said the allotment of $200 for every child from the old Sumpter School District who now attends classes in the three receiving districts, is contained in Section 18A of the Senate version of the aid bill proposed by Governor William Milliken, which still faces a House of Representatives test.

Section 18A was added to the Senate bill on an amendment by Faust and State Senator George Kuhn (R-West Bloomfield). It was (Continued on Page 3)

Romulus Homeowners' First Dance is 'Success'

BY CATHY DETTLOFF

ROMULUS—A turkey, stovepipe, hubcap, fruit scale and even a two-foot egg tree were just a few of the many items designed into some of the most unbelievable hats ever.

These and 250 others were all paraded last Saturday night, (Nov. 8) at the Romulus Homeowners First Annual Dance.

As homeowners entered the "gay nineties" dance hall, each couple was given a complimentary dinner at Hugh Gedrich's Livonia Penthouse.

ALL THE ladies received lovely multi-colored corsages, compliments of the decoration committee.

High button shoes, a barber pole and swinging doors at the Saloon all added to the decor.

The fabulous Ted Butkin Combo, attired in straw hats, green garters and striped vests added even more to the gay nineties theme.

Balloons were handed out to everyone in the hall. Everyone popped their balloons and scattered to find the folded numbers that had been placed in each one. Mrs. Mickie Lapota drew the winning numbers for gifts such as: free Burger King whoppers, men's wallets, gas-fill ups, women's scarves, and dinners from The Alamo and Blazo's.

Some of the many "balloon pop" winners were: John Tadrick, Paul Noeyack, Sandra Taylor, Gary Weber, Lucille Ferguson, Robert Dennis, Candy Lapota, Bobbie Chase, Sharon James, Carol Sikorski, Bill Gischia.

The main event of the evening, the Hat Contest began immediately after the "balloon pop."

Judges James Stewart, township trustee, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilhelm (director of Urban Renewal), and Jack Rarick, past president of Romulus Homeowners Association, had the hard task of selecting finalists.

FIVE FINALISTS had to be selected in both the men's and women's division of three separate categories; most original, best looking, and the craziest.

The final first and second place winners were then chosen by audience applause.

As near as could be determined, the winners and prizes were as follows: Men's Division—MOST ORIGINAL: Dennis Oszust, case of beer, Dan Sikorski—bar set. BEST LOOKING: John Drouillard, Leonard gas fill-up; and John Tadrick, Avon's "Trilogy" for men. CRAZIEST: Downy James, case of beer; Montie McGovern, carving set.

THE WOMEN'S DIVISION—MOST ORIGINAL: Carol Rarick, candlestick from Jacobson's;

Vicki Clark, Avon's Skin-So-Soft. PRETTIEST: Pat Reid, visit to Larry's Hairstyling; a towel set went to unknown second place winner. CRAZIEST: Lois Bleu, $10 certificate to the Wigwam Shop; Joann Tadrick, Partridge and Pear soaps by Avon.

Decorations chairman John Van Stipdonk drew the winning numbers for the Combination Raffle.

The jubilant winners and their prizes were: Theresa Krych, 15-lb. Virginia smoked ham; Jack Kushner, 15-lb. turkey; Louis Mackey, a fifth of 7-Crown; Frank Herndon, a fifth of Imperial; Patrick Walenty, 15-lb. turkey.

SOMETHING NEW and different, a "Night on the Town" raffle, pleased quite a few homeowners.

Everything from a $6 dinner certificate, to dinner for two at some of the finest restaurants in the Detroit Metropolitan area were included in the raffle.

Active homeowner, John Drouillard obtained donations for the raffle from the following:

Alvaro's, Copper Door, Metro-Inn, Topinkas, London Inn, Lofy's, Hillside Inn and Cafe Gourmet.

A few of the winners were Jack Trumble, Richard Pennington, Louise Withrow, Theresa Krych, and Linda Kohlhorst.

AS THE evening began to draw to an end the finale raffle drawing was announced.

Program chairman Chuck Dettloff mixed the tickets and his wife Cathy drew the lucky number for the beautiful His and Her matching Helbros watches. Andrew Lapota held the lucky number.

Donors to the success of the dance that have not been mentioned thus far were:

Farm Crest, Jo-Jo's Party Store, Mickelberry Meats, Pepsi, Eureka Lumber, Vernor's, Armstrong's Party Store, Coca-Cola, Rotunda Meats, Lynch's Costume Shop, Wrigley Supermarket, and Little Caesar's.

Individual contributors were: Ernest Okowitz, Mr. and Mrs. Mach, Carol Rarick, Mr. and Mrs. Wells, W. G. O'Riley, Mrs. Mickie Lapota, Mrs. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dettloff, Frances

Buchanan, and Mr. and Mrs. James Settlers.

Persons interested in participating in future functions and projects of the Homeowners should attend the regular meetings. Join us in our efforts to make Romulus the type of community of which every resident can be proud.

Belleville Seeks District Court System Change

BELLEVILLE—A cost increase to the City of Belleville for the 1970 operation of the 34th District Court, now based in Romulus Township, brought strong objections from Mayor Royce E. Smith.

The court's proposed 1970 budget of $105,300 hikes Belleville's contributing share for court operations to $614 per month from $407, or $7,371 for the 1970 year.

Mayor Smith stated that he has no quarrel with the court's budget as being unreasonable. His only complaint is that Belleville is getting little financial benefit from the court's operation.

THE MAYOR reported that he is seeking an amendment to House Bill 3204 now in committee to permit Belleville to set up its own municipal court.

State Senator William Faust and State Representative Edward E. Mahalak are being requested to assist in procuring a change in the bill to permit any city that desires to pull out from the District Court System and operate on its own.

"We have a unique situation in Belleville. We are the smallest city in the state. With one square mile area, our police department has a motor traffic problem that a city many times our size would have to contend with."

"If the city had a population of 35,000 to 40,000, this court would be a bonanza. It is the little man that is hit. Lansing is completely unaware of what this court contribution as presently set up is doing to small cities. And when they become aware of it I am sure that they will do something about it."

Revival

ROMULUS—Revival Meetings will begin Nov. 19 and continue through Nov. 23, Rev. James Lemmem, pastor, of the Hope Baptist Church, announced.

The church is located at 30025 King Road. Meetings start at 7 p.m.

Rev. Oudemolen will be the speaker. Everyone is invited to come and be returned to spiritual life and vigor.

Program By Timers Is Tonight

BELLEVILLE—The Belleville High School Timers Club, will present a series tonight (Wednesday, Nov. 19) at the high school pool beginning at 7 p.m.

The Timers Club currently with 30 members, will meet the Ypsilanti High School timers in some of the events scheduled.

The evening's program will include an Inner Tube Rally, Back Scull 35 yard contest as well as regular 100-yard, 25-yard Backstroke, 50-yard Breast Stroke, Deadman's Float and regulation diving.

Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 50 cents for students. Proceeds will be used toward future club programs and for the purchase of uniforms.

Chamber Members Increase

BELLEVILLE—Membership in the Belleville Area Chamber of Commerce has reached a new high, Theodore F. Kuckelman, executive director, has announced. Member roster now stands at 129.

The newest members to become affiliated with the Chamber are area merchants; Lockrow Realty Estate, located at 170 West Columbia Avenue; and Cecil Hall of Hall's Market, located at 17400 Savage Road.

District Court Area Assessments Hiked

BELLEVILLE—A proposed 1970 operating budget for the 34th District Court calls for increases in the proportionate shares of monies to be contributed by municipalities served by the court, a review of the budget disclosed.

The 34th District Court serves the City of Belleville, and the Townships of Huron, Romulus, Sumpter and Van Buren.

The new District Courts throughout Michigan replaced Justice of the Peace Courts on Jan. 1, 1969.

based on 10 months experience in operation of the new court, is a "realistic budget and each item is a "must" in order to continue effective operation."

The proposed budget of $105,300 is $7,494 over the 1969 budget and is based on necessary pay increase to maintain present court personnel, installation of a hospitalization insurance plan and to increase in normal operation operating expenses due to postage, telephone and telegraph, jury and witness fees.

Sumpter Township, $8,424 against $14,670.

Van Buren Township, $34,749 against $24,451.

Of the $105,300 1970 budget, total wages and salaries account for $76,100.

The 1969 budget was based on population as provided for in the state statutes setting up the District Court System. The 1970 budget is based on the percentage of business generated in each community and reviewed quarterly.

A MEETING scheduled with the District Control Council which is made up of representatives from each of the five communities that have agreed to defray operational cost of the court is planned.

The meeting was called to further explain an alternate plan under which the community would be assessed by the number of cases it had in court and not on the basis of population as in the current budget.

The salary of the District Court judge is now set at the state limit of $27,000 per year, which includes $9,500 paid by the five communities.

LAST WEEK Judge Stone appeared before the Van Buren Township Board to defend his proposed budget.

He had intended to speak to the Board on behalf of the Wayne County Credit Union and to urge the Van Buren Township employees be allowed to join the Credit Union.

In an earlier Board meeting, trustees complained that the Township was being assessed more than its share for court expenses.

The Judge told Board members a new method of apportioning expenses could be worked out if communities could come to an agreement.

THE BOARD instructed Trustee Walter Hink to meet with representatives of other communities and try to reach agreement.

The District Court is now located in Romulus at 30240 Eureka Road.

Areas served by the court, under present arrangements are permitted to retain fines for violations of their ordinances and traffic regulations but with an additional judgment fee of $3 for reimbursement to the State and to be used by the state in operational expense of the entire District Court System.

When the violator goes to the District Court and is convicted, two thirds of his fine remains with the court and one third is refunded to the community where the violation occurred. In each case a $3 judgment fee is assessed.

THE PROPOSED increases in the budget has resulted in objections raised by some area officials.

District Court Judge James B. Stone in a communication to officials of communities served by the court stated that his proposed budget,

DISTRIBUTION OF the 1970 budget by yearly payments compared with the previous year is as follows:

Belleville, $7,371 against $4,890.30.

Huron Township, $6,318 against $16,627.

Romulus Township, $48,438 against $37,166.

master with a minimum of practice.

AIM HIGH WHILE DRIVING. This means that you should look far down the road you are traveling so that you will be aware of the traffic pattern you are about to encounter. It will give you a warning of approaching hazards such as stopped vehicles ahead, traffic signals that have been green for a long time and are about to turn red, intersections that might allow unexpected traffic to cross your path, and curves or barricades ahead.

In addition, by aiming your vehicle at a point far ahead, you will find that it travels a much straighter path than if you steer by watching the roadway just in front of your wheels.

SEE THE WHOLE PICTURE. You are the center of your own driving environment. Therefore, you must know what is going on around you. How close are you to the car ahead? Are you properly centered in your driving lane? Are there pedestrians near your vehicle or are they starting across the street ahead? If there are vehicles parked alongside your lane, are they occupied? Are the wheels aimed straight ahead or out into traffic? Are there children playing alongside the street that might dart out at any moment?

KEEP YOUR EYES MOVING. Fan the area ahead with your eyes. This not only keeps you aware of things ahead of you, but it also improves your side vision so that you catch unusual movements beside your vehicle that you might otherwise have missed.

ALWAYS HAVE AN ESCAPE ROUTE. This means that you must mentally reserve an emergency exit from the flow of traffic if the need arises. It might take the form of leaving an extra cushion of space between you and the car ahead. Or you might have to slow down momentarily to let the traffic pattern ahead take shape before entering into it.

The Public Letter Box

TO THE EDITOR:

We would like to comment on the recently adopted grading system for grades 1-3 at Elwell Elementary School. To us, this grading system is completely useless because it discriminates against and discourages the better students, but yet puts children on the head for a mediocre performance.

Furthermore, the parents were not informed of this new system. As a result, parents did not know how to interpret their children's report cards.

Upon discussion with teachers, each teacher is apparently free to interpret the system as he pleases.

THE GRADING SYSTEM, "O" for Outstanding, "S" for Satisfactory, "I" for Improving, and "N" for Needs to Improve is much too general and vague.

Basically speaking, everyone would have to agree that if a child does not receive an "O" for Outstanding, he must either be improving or needs to improve.

Teachers are reluctant to give "O's" because, as they say, "They want the child to have something to work for." As a result, most children "A" through "D" in scholastic achievement are primarily lumped under the catch-all category of "Satisfactory." As a result, the grading system loses its original purpose and means little or nothing.

UNDER THE system, the school and teachers are abdicating their responsibility to evaluate the progress of a child in school. If the school system insists on using such a grading system, we would recommend that report cards be completely abolished and four conferences held in their stead. This would be more beneficial.

TO THE EDITOR:

Does Van Buren Township and the Van Buren School District need more trailer parks? This question is now before the planning Commissions of our Township and the City of Belleville.

S.A.T. Corporation, owned by Mr. Joseph Schlund, Mr. James Akron, and Mr. Louis Toth, is now planning to build a trailer park on Sumpter Road within the City of Belleville. This new park will have a capacity of 265 trailers. Mr. George Rohler, owner of the trailer park on Belleville Road, wants to increase the size of his park to accommodate 310 more trailers.

These additional trailers might not sound like an alarming amount unless you realize that the six existing parks in Van Buren Township have a capacity of almost 900 trailers and the ten parks in the Van Buren School District can accommodate approximately 2000 trailers. In other words these people are asking for a 30 percent increase in trailer park population for our community.

THE OWNERS of these parks contend that they pay their share of school taxes, but let's look at the facts for a change.

First, each trailer pays $3 a month in school taxes to the State of Michigan, $2 of this, or $24 a year, is returned to the local school district. Secondly, if you divide the number of trailers in a park into the amount of school taxes the owner of the park pays, you arrive at a figure of between $25 and $30 for each trailer in the park. By adding these two figures you find that each trailer family actually contributes between $50.00 and $60.00 a year in total school taxes to our school district.

The exact figures for the six parks in Van Buren Township range from $49.24 to $56.70 per trailer. Do you feel this is fair and equitable? —I don't.

This lack of responsible planning for our community has been brought about by three conditions. First, by the Van Buren Township Planning commission for recommending rezoning of lands for trailer parks. Secondly, by the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees for passing on these recommendations and issuing permits for more trailer parks, and finally on the citizens of our Township for allowing the politicians to rape our school tax dollars.

THE PLANNING COMMISSION of Van Buren Township is appointed by the supervisor and so has a commitment to him.

Unless the citizens of our Township and the City of Belleville express their feelings to these men they will continue to exercise poor judgment on the advice of our elected, or appointed, politicians.

If you are concerned about the future of our community, write or call the chairman of our Planning Commission, Mr. Irv Wallace, or any of the other members of the Commission, Mr. Suliman, Mr. Walls, Mr. Turney, Mr. Ryznar, Mr. Sharp, or Mr. Domcik.

By this method we may be able to slow down the degeneration of Van Buren Township and our School District until we have the opportunity to elect people to our Township Government who understand that responsible planning and responsible government means responsibility to their fellow taxpayer.

To Meet Sales Rise Solventol Adding Facilities

ROMULUS--Solventol Chemical Products Inc., located at 13177 Huron River Drive, is adding 15,000 square feet to manufacturing facilities to meet the demands of increasing sales, President R. W. Huffman has announced.

This is the fourth time the new Solventol factory has been expanded since it was built in 1963.

In announcing the expansion, Huffman noted that at the end of the company's fiscal year on Sept. 30, Solventol sales were up 20 percent over the previous year.

SOLVENTOL WAS founded in Detroit in 1934 to produce and market Solventol No. 2, the country's first successful commercial detergent.

Since then the company's extensive research department has developed hundreds of specialized cleaning and chemical products to meet specific industrial and commercial needs. These are marketed under both the Solventol brand name and private labels.

Solventol distributes its specialized cleaning products to the industrial, general maintenance, food processing and institutional markets.

Licensing agreements for Solventol Products extend to the European market and the Near East.

St. Anthony's Church Is Setting For Autumn Vows

Jo Ann Dunayczan and Michael Ray McDaniel, both of Belleville, were united in marriage Saturday, November 8, at St. Anthony's Catholic Church. Father Raymond Skoney presided at the double ring nuptials at six o'clock in the evening with some 75 friends and relatives in attendance.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dunayczan, of 19780 Karr Road, Belleville, Jo Ann was escorted to the altar by her father. For her wedding day, she donned a formal gown of silk organza over taffeta. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a boat neckline and traditional tapered sleeves. Lace appliques sprinkled with pearls and iridescent accents the sleeves, neckline and full skirt.

A petaled headpiece of lace studded with shimmering crystals secured her three-quarter veil of silk illusion and she carried a colonial arrangement of white carnations.

THE BRIDE'S Godmother, Mrs. Glen Sandy, of Wayne, was asked to serve as honor attendant. Her A-line gown was designed with a dark blue skirt with the bodice in a lighter shade of blue satin. A rounded neckline, long sleeves, and flowing back panel were features of her dress which was accessorized with a heart-shaped crown and veil headdress. Completing her ensemble was a bouquet of blue carnations.

Wearing identical frocks in paler shades of blue were Mrs. Audie McDaniel, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Kathy German, a close friend of the bride, both from Belleville.

Eight-year old Karen Memering, cousin of the bride, was dressed in a miniature version of the honor attendant's gown for her role as flowergirl.

The bride's five-year old brother, Wally Dunayczan, served as ringbearer.

The bridegroom, son of Harshel McDaniel, of Sherwood Road, Belleville, and the late Mrs. McDaniel, asked Michael Dunayczan, brother of the bride, to be best man. Ushers were Audie McDaniel, the bridegroom's brother, and Donnie Rice, of Belleville.

The P.N.A. Hall was the setting for the reception which followed with some 225 guests attending. Mrs. Dunayczan wore for the occasion a pink shantung coat-dress ensemble and corsage of pink and white carnations.

Among those attending was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Walter Baron, of Wayne, who donned a pink lace dress and was presented with a corsage of pale pink carnations.

The newlyweds, both former students at Belleville High School, are now living on Willis Road, Belleville. The bridegroom is an employee of the Kelsey Hayes Company, Romulus.

Women's Study Club Sees Slides, Hears Talk On Weaving

Mrs. Thurston Jahr played hostess to members of the Women's Study Club of Belleville at her home on Harmony Lane Wednesday evening, November 12.

Mrs. Jahr, chairman of the Fine Arts Committee, used as her theme for the program, "Art Explorations" with Mrs. Arlin Linn, of Bloomfield, as guest speaker.

Mrs. Linn, a noted authority and teacher of weaving, holds a BA degree from Iowa State University and earned her MA at Cranbrook. She has exhibited extensively at the Detroit Institute of Arts, at the National Decorative Arts Show in Wichita, Kansas, and at Cranbrook.

Last year she was in Lima, Peru to attend the World Crafts Council and to record different samples of the country's weaving methods on colorful slides.

It was these pictures which she used to illustrate her talk on "Pre-Columbian Weaving and its Influence on Contemporary Weaving." The work, 500 to 2,000 years old, was very similar to our present day, bold abstract art.

ATTENDING WITH her as a special guest was Chong Bae Park, a sculptor from Seoul, Korea, and assistant professor at Hong Ik University in Seoul. He is presently exhibiting his work at the Birmingham Gallery, Inc., in Birmingham, until November 22.

Also a guest for the evening was Mrs. Eugene Rhodes, of Belleville a Dearborn art teacher.

Mrs. Irving Wallace was back after her recent hospitalization to preside at the business meeting. Mrs. Adger Wall gave a report on the recent Ingathering at Girlstown and also read a letter from Miss Esther Bain, Girlstown Director, which she had received from an alumnus of "Loch Rio".

Co-hostesses Mrs. William Van Schoick and Mrs. Orlo G. Roberts later served dessert and tea from a Thanksgiving theme table. Twenty-four members and three guests were in attendance.

Ideas For Left-Over Meats Including Turkey

How can the "average" homemaker feed her family well and keep the food budget intact? One way, is to avoid waste and get every bit of good out of food purchased. Unfortunately, we are much more likely to be aware of the low prices on large or quantity purchases than we are of the spoiled food we throw out.

Leftovers present a continuous challenge to the homemaker. When the original enthusiasm for the Sunday roast or the large turkey vanishes she is faced with the problems of how they should make their "second appearance" on the family table. "Disguising" them is no longer in vogue. It is more than that. Leftovers, and I really prefer to call them "planned-overs," can and should attract attention, arouse interest and stimulate the desire to eat.

Perhaps these suggestions will spark your imagination for utilizing leftovers in a great variety of attractive dishes, and give them a new personality when they make their second appearance.

Linda Sue Bock Is Fall Bride Of Larry Coffee

Carrying a heart-shaped bouquet of white carnations and roses and dressed in a traditional white gown, Linda Sue Bock walked up the aisle of the Wick Road Baptist Church, in Taylor, to become the bride of Larry J. Coffee.

Their autumn ceremony at six in the evening was read by the Rev. Leland Kennedy. Double ring vows were exchanged before an altar graced with two vases of gladioli. Marlene Savage at the organ accompanied Joy Kennedy as she sang two solos, "The Wedding Prayer" and "Hand in Hand."

Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin F. Bock, Sr., of 18352 Inkster Road, Romulus, and her bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Roy Carter, of 7109 Schuler Street, Newport, and the late Brown Coffee.

FOR HER wedding day, the bride selected a gown fashioned of sate-peau, the bodice of Chantilly lace featuring a high bishop collar and wide-cuffed bishop sleeves. A full chapel train drifted from the shoulders and was accented with appliques of lace.

Her three-tiered veil of silk illusion was caught to a petaled headdress outlined with seed pearls and crystals.

As her sister's maid of honor, Marilyn Bock appeared in an A-line chartreuse frock of chiffon over taffeta. Her matching velvet head bow was edged with a two-tiered veil and she held a small basket filled with assorted straw flowers.

Mrs. Melvin Bock, Jr., of Flat Rock, sister-in-law of the bride; Debbie Ward, of Flat Rock; Connie Demick, her cousin from Romulus; and Mrs. Ray Coffee, of Romulus, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, formed the bridal coterie. Their punch-colored ensembles were identical to the honor attendant's.

THE CORPS of groomsmen was headed by the best man, Don Rice, of Davison; with Ray Coffee, of Romulus, and Melvin Bock, Jr., of Flat Rock, brothers of the bridal couple; John Demick, of Romulus, cousin of the bride; and Don Blohm, of Flat Rock, as ushers.

The Carrawee Hall, in Flat Rock, was reserved for the reception which followed. The 325 guests were greeted by Mrs. Bock in a shimmering off-white dress with companion coat and silver and white accessories.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Carter chose a lace sheath in medium green with a matching crepe coat and black accessories. Both mothers added carnation corsages to their outfits.

Now residing at 17832 Hazel Street, Romulus, the newlyweds drove to Niagara Falls, New York, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, and Ohio on their honeymoon.

A 1968 graduate of Flat Rock High School, Linda is currently attending Wayne County Community College. She is also a secretary at Hand School in the Woodhaven School District.

Her husband graduated from Flat Rock High School in 1964 and is a student at Henry Ford Community College. He is an employee of the Chrysler Corporation, in Trenton, working as a toolmaker apprentice.

MISS MACH

March 28 Is Their Altar Date

The Willow Run Church of God has been reserved for the March 28 wedding of Karen Lee Mach and David Wayne Medley, both of Belleville. Announcement of their engagement is made by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mach, of 45071 Venetian, Belleville.

A 1967 graduate of Belleville High School, Miss Mach attended Albion College and Eastern Michigan University and is currently employed as a teller at Manufacturers Bank of Detroit.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Medley, of 45240 Paris Drive, Belleville, is also a 1967 Belleville High alumnus. He is currently in his junior year at Eastern Michigan University where he is majoring in art and is employed at W.T. Grant's at Gault Village, Ypsilanti.

Bad Item Can Lose Shopper

Sell a woman a dairy product she doesn't think looks or tastes just right and you have made a real enemy, according to a dairy products buying survey of 341 housewives in southeastern Michigan.

The Michigan State University survey showed that many women will change brands on the basis of one bad experience with a product. Just as many said they would contact the store manager for replacement of the product.

Others said they would complain to their husband or a friend, and a few indicated they would discontinue use of all products of that brand. Almost one out of every 10 said she would change stores.

The survey was conducted by Lysle Hutton, consumer marketing information agent for MSU's Cooperative Extension Service.

PUBLISKI-MAGUIRE WED

Miami And Nassau On Honeymoon Itinerary

St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church, in Ann Arbor, was reserved for the recent autumn wedding of Patricia Ann Maguire, of 2966 Birch Hollow Drive, Ann Arbor, and Thomas Joseph Publiski, of 51316 Willis Road, Belleville. Their double ring vows were solemnized in a one o'clock ceremony read by Father Frenza before some 100 assembled guests. Arrangements of white carnations and chrysanthemums graced the altar for the October nuptials.

The ceremony united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Maguire, Sr., of 683 Robinwood, Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Publiski, of 51316 Willis Road, Belleville.

ESCORTED TO the sanctuary by her father, the bride appeared in a toe-touching creation of white satin styled in the A-line mode with wristpoint sleeves, a high neckline and floor-length cape train. Individual lace flowers studded with seed pearls formed the sleeves, banded the neckline, and frosted the hemline of the gown.

A cluster of satin roses and seed pearls clasped her mid-back veil of silk illusion and she carried a cross-shaped arrangement of white carnations and foliage.

Formal frocks in brown satin were chosen for the quintet of bridal attendants: Kristine Rowe, of Ann Arbor, the maid of honor; Phyllis Hoag, of Ann Arbor; Debbie Riggs, of Willis; Cheri Stokes, of Ann Arbor; and the junior bridesmaid, Cindy Publiski, the bridegroom's nine-year-old sister.

Styling details on the Publiski, another brother, all from Belleville.

Mrs. Maguire selected for her daughter's wedding a yellow A-line dress with matching coat. A lime green frock and mink cape were worn by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Publiski. Both added white orchids to their ensembles.

Since returning from a two weeks honeymoon to Miami Beach and Nassau, the newlyweds have made their home at 2966 Birch Hollow Drive, Ann Arbor.

A graduate of St. Thomas High School, Pat attended Eastern Michigan University and is currently employed at Handicraft Furniture, in Ann Arbor. Tom is a Lincoln High School alumnus who attended Washtenaw Community college for two years and served with the U.S. Army, one year being spent in Vietnam. He is presently working for the Ford Motor Company, in Ypsilanti.

MRS. THOMAS J. PUBLISKI

ALL AROUND THE TOWN ... with Lee

'Twas Bonnie's Birthday

HAVING ANOTHER birthday isn't half bad when one is able to share it with friends amid an evening of camaraderie. It was through the underhanded methods of her husband, Pat, that Bonnie Prouty turned out to be the guest of honor in her own home last Friday night. With Jan MacDermid as his accomplice, Pat accomplished the hush-hush task of rounding up friends and getting them to the Prouty's Sumpter Road place by nine o'clock.

Thus it was that while he was dining his mate (and their trio—Steven, Dan, and David)—Pat's plans were put into action.

On arriving back from the restaurant, Bonnie was greeted with shouts of 'surprise' and presented with a pile of gag gifts. Included among her goodies were several paint-by-number kits (Bonnie, you should know, is an accomplished artist); chocolates from a certain dentist guest; and an original poem, "Mod Bod" from Jim and Judy Fruit whose companion gift—a set of paints—proved to be the hit of the evening.

Finger foods (each gal bringing her special canape) made up the menu for the group. The guest list (which reads like a clinic directory) included the D.D.S. trio, Jerry Kelly, Gerry Miller, and Paul Gerrish, and their respective wives, Gerry, Helen, and Jo. Also joining their doctor host (Pat is our local veterinarian) were the Doctors Stokes and MacDermid with Madeline and Jan. Pat and Helen Stokes, Ernie and Pat Ryback, Lois Hamilton (minus her mate who was stalking the north woods), Landy and Stephanie Box, Jim Buck, and Darryl and Bea Raymond.

Also In November

ANOTHER 'SCORPIO' to enjoy a birthday recently was Gwen Liebler of Ormond Drive whose close friends took her "out on the town" (of Plymouth) in honor of the occasion. Treating her to lunch at the 'Hillside Inn' were Marge Roberts (just back from a whirlwind five days in Las Vegas and California with her pilot husband, John); Louise Hope, Annette Palmer, and Lee Smith. ... NOVEMBER 15TH falling on a Saturday was an ideal time to celebrate for Tom and Kay Johnston whose wedding day was just a short seven years back. And having Kay's parents, the Harold Mortons, here from Euclid, Ohio, added a special touch since they, too, have an anniversary—their 30th—on that same day. The foursome, with cousins, Marty and Loretta Thorne along, spent the evening in Detroit starting with dinner at 'Top of the Flame' and fun at the 'Red Garter.' The Mortons motored back to Ohio Sunday afternoon. ... OTHERS WITH 'special' days this month are Diane Pavelka who turned seven on the third; Louise Czajkowski (and we're not telling!) whose date is the 10th; Michele Owen (she's still Mickie to us) who calls the 13th her day; Diane Hill, who celebrated this past Monday; Clifford Cicotte, who'll have six candles to blow out day after tomorrow; Chuck Weber, a November 25th arrival; and Brad Rockwell, who'll be eating birthday cake on the last day of the month. As for those anniversaries—Al and Jean Chudzinski chalked up their 24th on the third and coming up is the 19th for the Czajowskis—Irv and Louise. (Continued on Page 8)

Wool Contest Being Held For Teens

The National Make It Yourself With Wool Contest is drawing many talented teen-age contestants from District 5 (Lapeer, Macomb, St. Clair, Oakland and Wayne Counties).

According to Mrs. N.D. Norland, local District Director of the contest, interest among girls is running high in the try for some $30,000 in prizes to be awarded by the American Wool Council and some 40 National sponsors. Awards include two all expense paid dream vacations in Europe, college scholarships, Government Bonds, sewing machines, luggage, cosmetics, and accessories.

To enter girls must make a garment of 100% wool fabric loomed or knitted in America and model it before a panel of judges. Local winners progress to State and then National judging with awards at each level.

The National finals will be in Denver, Colorado, on January 22, 1970.

Girls interested in entering or wanting more information should contact Mrs. N.D. Norland at 1950 Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills, Michigan 48013 telephone (313) 626-3634, or write directly to:

Fashions, Food 'N Fun

THE FASHION Show and Luncheon, sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary, Wayne County Medical Society, found a number of local ladies at the Raleigh House in Southfield last Tuesday, November 11. Eula McKeever (Doctor George McKeever's partner) gathered the gals together for the benefit which will mean a nursing scholarship for some lucky student. Eula, who'll take over the reins of auxiliary president come next May, shared her luncheon table with several doctors' wives—Mrs. William Rekshan, Mrs. Allen Chen, Mrs. Karl Klicka, and Mrs. Willard Beebe, all from our town; as well as Mrs. Kenneth Dryer from Wayne; and others with local addresses, Mrs. Robert Fraser, Mrs. John Freysinger, Mrs. Thurston Jahr, and Mrs. Fred Gott.

Fashions by Bonwit Teller were viewed by some 700 persons, in all, and door prizes included an original oil painting donated by Mrs. McKeever.

CAROL'S WORLD—Shown in her bed at Wayne County General Hospital is Carol Ruff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ruff, of Belleville. Carol was struck by an automobile while walking to a neighbor friend's home on Labor Day. She suffered a concussion and multiple fractures of the pelvis and legs. The picture was taken September 30 on the occasion of Carol's 15th birthday for which she managed a big smile.

Carol Ruff Marks 80th Day In Hospital Today

BY LEE SMITH
Women's Editor

It was 80 days ago—Labor Day, '69—that changed the whole course of events for one pretty 14-year old who was looking forward to the opening of school in just a few days. But instead of joining her classmates that day, Carol Ruff lay a patient in Wayne County General Hospital, the victim of a roadside accident.

While walking to a neighbor friend's home just across the way—on the shoulder and facing traffic as she should—Carol was struck by an automobile which, allegedly, was on the wrong side of the road. She was rushed to the hospital by ambulance and was found to be suffering from a concussion and multiple fractures of the pelvis and legs.

Today is the 80th day she marks off on her calendar in Room 508—a room of rehabilitation and healing with its pulleys, weights, frame, and grips which form the traction for her injured leg.

Blue-eye with long, brown hair, Carol who is a member of Belleville High School's sophomore class, has undergone surgery four times, the most recent being a skin graft to help heal her wounds.

Carol's world revolves around a constant series of doctors, nurses, aids, and therapists but it CENTERS on those precious moments when she has visitors and receives mail. Those are the times which make her room just a little brighter and the weight of her cast just a trifle lighter—the occasions which mean EVERYTHING to her. She has received many cards and letters and is most grateful to those who have remembered her. Although it is quite difficult, she is attempting to do a little letter-writing herself and has composed some very meaningful, soul-searching poetry which we include with this article.

SINCE HER admittance to

Wayne General, Carol turned 15, her birthday falling one month after the accident. She was in particularly fine spirits that day because it meant her whole family could spend an hour or two with her. And having brothers, Mark (who's 16) and David, 11, with her made the climb a little less steep.

The daughter of Carl and Erma Ruff, of 42626 E. Huron River Drive, Belleville, Carol suffers from homesickness along with her injuries. Little brother, David, isn't allowed above the first floor but, wanting to see his sister desperately, he managed not only to rise above that main floor, but to share a room on the same floor. It was on October 8 that Dave found himself a patient in Room 510—being treated for a broken jaw which was the result of a neighborhood football game. (There just MUST have been an easier way, Dave).

Always an outgoing, nature-loving girl, Carol is now surrounded with a large collection of stuffed animals which friends and relatives have sent or brought as gifts. An avid student of the French language, she is now being tutored in the subject and gets additional aid from Dr. Kleinberg (a resident doctor) who converses with her in French whenever they're together.

A member of the Belleville High Band, Carol has been especially lucky to be remembered with cards and visits from her fellow clarinet-players and bandmen. She wants particularly to say thank you for the mail, for the gifts, flowers, and visits which mean EVERYTHING when someone's whole world is a hospital room viewed while flat on one's back.

Carol still has a long way to go—those bones have yet to knit. Yes, today's her 80th day.

Following are but two of many poems which Carol has written during her hospitalization.

CLOSER TO HOME

Closer to home, I'm drawing near
I'll paint you a picture, to make it clear.
I'm caught in a storm, dreary night
But I don't need cover in my flight.

The storm is raging in my thoughts,
There was no trap set, but I was caught.
Through my storm I need much aid
For now in a hospital bed I'm laid.

I know the storm will pass some day
Home seems far from where I lay.
The storm is pain and loneliness and fright,
That's the storm that's caused my plight.

But soon a rainbow must appear
No need to look for my sky will be clear.
Time, faith and hope are on my side
And the powerful grasp of God to guide.

THINKING

I've had time to think things out,
There's some things no one should doubt.
For every hurt there is a mend,
For every river has a bend.

Every river empties out,
Faith in God cleanses doubt.
Every hurt, every bend,
Straightens out in the end.

These recipes are "thought-starters" to show you how attractively leftovers can be served in "new" dishes. Your own recipe book or file undoubtedly contains many more.

MEAT PIE
½ cup diced celery
½ cup diced onion

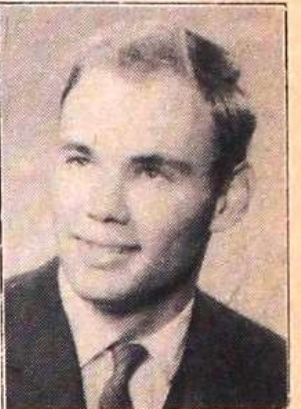

½ cup chopped green pepper
2 cups cubed leftover beef roast
1 cup cubed leftover potatoes
1 cup cubed leftover carrots
1 cup cooked peas
1 cup gravy
4 slices dry bread (cubed)

Brown celery, onion, and green pepper in hot fat; add combined meat, potatoes, carrots, and peas. Add gravy and season to taste. Pour into casserole; top with bread cubes browned in butter. Bake in moderate oven (375°) 30 minutes. Six servings.

TURKEY OR CHICKEN LOAF

Brown 1 cup raw rice, 1 onion and ¼ green pepper, chopped, in 3 tablespoons fat. Stir as it browns. Add 1 quart stock. Let rice cook tender in the stock, adding salt and pepper, scraps of leftover turkey or chicken and, just before serving, some tomato sauce or some of that tomato-pepper relish you made last summer. Serves 6.

Among lucky deer hunters on the opening day of the 1969 season was Mr. Ed Bizek of Hildebrand Road, former Romulus Township Supervisor and now a member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors. Bizek downed a 6-point buck while hunting near Hillman, Michigan.

Also reported to have shot bucks are Joseph Oakley of Porter Street and his son, Richard Oakley. The two hunted at the Burr-Oaks Club near Atlanta.

Among other hunters on the Burr-Oaks grounds are Bill Oakley, Sr., Bill Oakley, Jr., Bill Ballard, all of Romulus, and Harvey Rhodes of Belleville.

At the Aero-Pine Club, Hillman, Michigan the following were on hand for Opening Day: Carl Morris and sons, Don, Larry and Jamie of Romulus; Fred W. Hay, his mother, Mrs. Lillian Hay of Belleville, his daughter, Carla, and son, Fred M.; also sons-in-law, Virgil L. Varner of Belleville, and Donald Herrmann of Romulus, and their guests. Varner toted north the 30-30 Marlin deer rifle he won recently at a meeting of the Wayne County Sportsmen's Club, Inkster Road, of which he is a member. None of the Aero-Pine hunters downed bucks the first weekend.

Charles Ellward, Jr., of Huron River Drive West is deer hunting at the Livingstone Hunting Club, Atlanta, with John Brandes and Russell Wilson of New Boston.

About 67 ladies attended a double stork shower given by friends and relatives Nov. 7 for Mrs. Robert (Marlene) Stanton and Mrs. Gary (Ella) Moore, both of Wick Road. The party was held at the Calvary Baptist Church, Ozga Road. Since then Mrs. Stanton has given birth (Nov. 14) to "Mark Allen" at Oakwood Hospital. The baby is the couple's first child and weighed 7 pounds, 3 ounces. Mrs. Moore expects to become a mother for the fourth time in late December.

The local Weight Watchers Class, which meets each Wednesday morning at 9:30 a.m., is reported growing very fast under the direction of lecturer Garnett Zilka, who lost 69 and 3/4 pounds in seven months with Weight Watchers. Mrs. Zilka claims the members report they never go hungry and are experiencing good weight losses. Because of the demand, a new class is being opened on Tuesday evenings, at 7:30 p.m. Meetings for both classes are held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, New Boston.

Mrs. Rhoda Phipps of Lima, Ohio, is spending several days as a house guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles (Mabel) Ellward, Sr., on Huron River Drive West.

Miss Flora Diepenhorst of Northline Road will be among members of the Eastern Michigan University Women's Glee Club who will appear in a Concert Monday, Nov. 24, in the Belleville High School Boys' Gymnasium.

On Nov. 28 and 29 next Friday and Saturday there will be a combination Rummage Sale and Bazaar to aid the Romulus Santa Claus Workshop. It is being sponsored by a local young lady, Miss Catherine Wilson. In case you didn't know, most of Santa's furnishings for his trailer display (inside and out) were lost in a barn fire last April.

Anyone having any reusable household articles or clothing which they would like to donate to the rummage sale, please contact Miss Wilson (phone 941-3143). Also plan to visit the rummage sale and bazaar which will be held in front of Santa's trailer on Goddard Road, near Five Points, weather permitting. If not, it will be held at 38339 Walnut Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carrico of Huron River Drive South returned last Thursday from a month-long trip to Europe. The couple enjoyed sightseeing in England, Germany, Switzerland, France, Italy and Austria. While in Erlangen, Germany, the Carricos visited their son and daughter-in-law, Pfc. and Mrs. Kevin Carrico. Kevin is serving with the U. S. Army there. His wife is the former Carol McNutt of Romulus.

PTA, TOWNSHIP THANKED

Mt. Pleasant Students Hold Election; Use Vote Machine

ROMULUS—The Mt. Pleasant Elementary School's student body elected this year's slate of officers to represent them on their student council. Elected on Tuesday, Nov. 11, as new president with a total of 119 votes was Keith Grose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Grose, 39254 Superior Road; elected vice-president was Floyd Collins, fifth grade student in Mrs. Nettie McDonald's class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd J. Collins, 37638 Walnut Drive.

The new secretary is Julie Johnson, sixth grader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Johnson, 38107 Walnut Drive. Handling the funds of the Student Council for the 1969-70 school year will be fourth grade student Robin Pappas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Pappas, 13551 Cogswell Road.

THESE STUDENTS as well as the other nominees campaigned for their offices with campaign buttons, posters, and gave their nominating presentations during the assembly held Monday, Nov. 10 in the Mt. Pleasant multi-purpose room.

The 10 candidates and their campaign managers are as follows:

Candidates for President — Beaver Pappas, Mark Collins, manager; Brenda Hudson, Randy Lambert, manager; and Keith Grose, Jerry Harris, manager.

Candidates for vice-president — Paula Hudson, Joni Smith, manager; Floyd Collins, Paul Mulready, manager; and Linda Weber, Mary McCormick, manager.

Candidates for Secretary — Julie Johnson, Cheryl Kaiser, manager; Terry Orsini, Anita Johnson, manager.

Candidates for Treasurer — Victor Bird, Ricky Johnson, manager; and Robin Pappas, Rhonda Bartley, manager.

THROUGH THE cooperation of the Romulus Township Board and Township Clerk, Alfred (Joe) Perry, the Mt. Pleasant students were able to vote for their candidates on one of the township voting machines stored at Mt. Pleasant.

The chance to vote on a "real" voting machine was enthusiastically received by the students who were able to vote like "mom and dad".

The Mt. Pleasant student body would also like to thank Joyce Tkachuk and Laura Chesno for helping operate the voting machine during their election. They would also like to thank the Mt. Pleasant PTA for paying the fee to have the voting machine set up for the election.

The final outcome for each candidate were as follows:

President — Keith Grose, 119 votes; Beaver Pappas, 107 votes; and Brenda Hudson, 76 votes.

Vice-President — Floyd Collins, 119 votes; Paula Hudson, 97 votes; and Linda Weber, 85 votes.

Secretary — Julie Johnson, 161 votes; and Terri Orsini, 135 votes.

Treasurer — Robin Pappas, 174 votes; and Victor Bird, 120 votes.

THERE WERE 309 students who voted out of a possible 315 voters, an inevitable turn out in comparison to most adult elections.

The Student Council sponsor is Principal, Harold Connon, who remarked that this annual election is just one example of the interesting methods used at Mt. Pleasant to teach youngsters the everyday workings of our Democratic Government.

MAKE SURE it's a bright future, not only for this little girl but for all children. Action-oriented PTA's across the nation fight any inadequacy, inequity, or failure of society which limits the opportunities of children. Turn your concern for children into positive action and join your local PTA today.

OFFICIAL IMPRESSED

Van Buren Title I Project Reviewed

BELLEVILLE—Dr. Harold Wells, project director for the Wayne County Intermediate School District reviewed the Van Buren Title I Project on Friday, Nov. 7.

Clarence Wills, State Title I Evaluator, recommended that Dr. Wells review the merits of this project.

The project centers around increased Student Self-Responsibility and reading improvement with the additional components of Home Reading Prescriptions and Parent-Aides.

The project was detailed for him by Mrs. Ella Wooley, director of Title I and Mrs.

Leona Kozma, Title I Reading Consultant.

Dr. Wells commented as follows:

"This program works excellently. The basic emphasis on increasing self-responsibility is right on target for children. I am particularly impressed with the Home Reading Prescriptions which gets at the vital home-school relationship in a cooperative effort to help children learn. Parent-Aides help make the Home Reading Prescription Program successful by their careful attention to following up the children's work."

New Scout Troop Needs Meeting Site

ROMULUS—A new Boy Scout Troop currently in its organizational stages, is badly in need of a meeting place, it was disclosed.

The new troop will be mostly for boys in the Diamond Point and Emerald Green Subdivisions of Romulus Township where no Boy Scout Troop exists.

At an organizational meeting held two weeks, from 12 to 15 boys were signed up for the troop, Scoutmaster Charles Kline, of 30282 Cherry, announced.

Further programming requires a meeting place preferably in the area along Ecorse Road, between Middlebelt and Wayne Roads.

The nearest Boy Scout unit is located at the west end of the Township too far for the boys in the areas of the two subdivisions.

Any one interested in assisting the new troop in meeting this requirement are asked to call Kline at 941-5677.

Research

Contracts totaling $213,446, including an "Investigation of the Dynamic Impact of Roadside Obstacles," were approved Thursday, Nov. 13 by Wayne State University's Board of Governors.

The research into automotive accidents will be conducted under the direction of Dr. Alfred W. Jones, 5369 Hickory Bend, Bloomfield Hills, College of Engineering.

Sumpter School Starts Parent Teacher Group

BELLEVILLE—Nine parents and two teachers met with the Principle Tom McClenon, of Sumpter School, on Monday evening, Nov. 3, to form a Parent Teachers Organization.

They chose as chairman, Mrs. Mary Innes; Secretary, Mrs. Jackie Harris, and Treasurer, Mrs. Carol Caudill.

Several decisions were reached at this meeting to better the 'parent-teacher-child' relationship in the Sumpter area.

The parents will have a chance to participate in school projects and help prepare teaching materials for the slower students. Also, it was decided to start a room mother's program, in hopes that more parents will participate.

ON MONDAY, Nov. 10, the PTO held their first official meeting at the school. Committee chairmen were selected for: making materials for slow reader classes (Mrs. Gambles) and the Christmas Bazaar (Mrs. Hassett).

The ladies that work with Mrs. Mary Maxwell have volunteered to make 15 felt teddy bears for the slow reader classes. Also, Mrs. Maxwell will help prepare materials and teach the ladies how to make IBM card Christmas wreaths to sell at the Christmas Bazaar.

On Wednesday and Thursday the PTO held a bake sale in the hall at school during the parent-teacher conferences. They made approximately $25 on each day. They wish to thank all the parents who donated food for the sale and also the bakery for donating boxes.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 2 at 7 p.m.

Babysitters will be available during the meeting and if you need transportation, call Mrs. Smith at 699-4932. Mack's choir will present a small Christmas Carol. This meeting will prove to be very heartwarming and productive for parents and teachers alike.

Fire Kills Woman

ROMULUS—Township police are investigating the death of a woman identified as Linda Lee Steiner, 22, whose body was discovered by Romulus firemen when battling a trailer fire, last Thursday, Nov. 13. Police Chief Jacob J. Koch reported that the woman was found fully clothed in the bathroom portion of the trailer she resided in and located at 5827 Airborne, Royal Village Trailer Court. Police Sergeant Robert Taylor and Patrolman William Wenko responded to the scene with firemen. Wayne County Sheriff detectives are assisting in the probe.

Edgemont Has Brownie Investiture

BELLEVILLE—A Brownie Troop Investiture was held at Edgemont Elementary School on Tuesday, Nov. 18 at 7:30 p.m.

Thirty seven Brownies were invested into two troops, 33 receive Brownie pins and four received second-year membership stars.

Parents, relatives and friends of the young girls, who participated in the Brownie Investiture of Troop 362 attended the affair.

PROGRAM INCLUDED a flag ceremony, singing of America, pinning rites with recitation of the "Brownie Promise," closing songs and refreshments.

Involved in the planning: Mrs. Robert Reed, Mrs. Richard Mendel, Mrs. Ronald Sierota, Mrs. Donald Harper, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. William Szaba, Mrs. Gerald Woodruff, Mrs. Robert Tontalo, Mrs. Harold Lindemann, Mrs. Emil Jones and Mrs. John Thompson, troop service director.

PTA Reports

ROMULUS—Mt. Pleasant Elementary School held their Open House on Nov. 11. It replaced the PTA meeting.

Many parents were present and were welcomed to visit each room including eight new classrooms.

The main attraction was the new court yard on which numerous comments were made.

A "job well done" is in order for Mrs. Sharon Champagne, chairman in charge.

The school is very proud of this area. Out of an and reinforced tire chains about seven times the pull of regular tires on glare ice.

For stopping on ice, conventional snow tires offered no advantage. Studded snow tires produced a 19 percent improvement; reinforced tire chains a 50 percent improvement over regular tires.

Chief Koch pointed out that these comparisons were made with traction aids on rear wheels only. "This is important," he said, "because cornering — the ability to round a curve and still maintain steering — is a major traction problem."

Traction aids (including snow tires, studded tires and chains) are of little advantage to the driver in cornering unless used on all four wheels.

ON LOOSELY packed snow however, conventional snow tires were 13 percent better than regular tires; reinforced tire chains were 37 percent better.

FOR GETTING started, the NSC committee compared conventional snow tires, studded snow tires and reinforced tire chains with the pulling ability of regular tires on glare ice.

The tests disclosed that convention snow tires provided 28 percent improvement over regular tires. Studded tires developed about three times the pull average group attending, 21 new memberships were taken. It would be wonderful to view more of this enthusiasm.

In regards to the spaghetti dinner held Nov. 7, the success was overwhelming and went better than expected. The kitchen chairman would like to thank those who helped serve the meal.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT

Due to greatly increased postage costs, we find it necessary to adjust the mail subscription rates of our newspapers. For instance, it costs almost 12 times as much to mail a newspaper to a subscriber in California than it does to mail the same paper to a subscriber in Wayne County. Another postal rate increase will take effect January 1, 1970.

Our present mail subscription rates have been $4.00 per year in the state of Michigan, $4.00 per year to servicemen, and $5.00 per year to out-of-state subscribers.

Effective November 1, 1969, mail subscription rates will be adjusted as follows:

$4.00 per year in Michigan (no increase in price)

$5.00 per year to Servicemen (including Servicemen overseas)

$7.00 per year to out-of-state Subscribers

Out-of-state subscribers can renew their subscriptions at the old rate, (limit two years), if you mail in your payment before November 30, 1969.

We will continue our efforts to bring you bigger and better newspapers, and we appreciate the loyalty of our tens of thousands of paid subscribers.

NEW PLANT OPENS-The Romulus Welding Company, another of Romulus Township's newest businesses, announced formal opening. Located at 7164 Harrison, the plant, pictured above, offers a complete line of welding, including a Heliarc Machine for welding aluminum. Owner and operator of the plant is James C. Stewart, who currently is a member of the Romulus Township Board of Trustees. Stewart has resigned his position with the Ford Motor Company to devote all of his time to his new venture.

ROMULUS-Another plant has been added to the commercial and industrial front of Romulus Township.

The new concern is - The Romulus Welding Company, located at 7164 Harrison at Ecorse Road. It offers a complete line of welding services, including a Heliarc Machine for welding aluminum.

Plant owner and operator is James C. Stewart, a licensed and certified welding technician.

STEWART HAS 18 years of welding experience, 12 years of this on major construction projects in the Metropolitan Detroit Area.

He is also qualified to perform various welding techniques on equipment and major auto manufacturing, having spent some six years in such work.

The firm has portable welding machine for field and on the spot welding and instant repair of construction equipment and trucks anywhere.

The plant also has a ramp and complete set-up for installing Reese Trailer Hitches with guaranteed workmanship.

In opening his business after resigning from private employment, Stewart commented:

"Romulus is the opportunity for any new business or industry with the influx of new people and industries that are locating in the community.

"With the Metro Airport as an asset, two railroads, one expressway and another proposed (I-275), Romulus is the ideal location for any type of business or investment."

For School Orchestra Rummage Sale Scheduled in Romulus

ROMULUS-A special Rummage Sale will be held on Dec. 5 and 6 for the benefit of the Romulus High School Orchestra, announced Mrs. Florence Klein and Mrs. June Blanton.

It will be held in the Special Services Building at the Thrift Shop Room, located at 7335 Washington, Wayne and Ecorse. The hours will be from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. on Friday and from 9 a.m. until 12 noon on Saturday.

All proceeds from the sale will be donated to the orchestra, under the leadership of Mrs. Linda Mathews, teacher.

THE ROMULUS BOARD of Education has recently authorized the purchase of Blazers and the Orchestra members have been attempting to obtain matching skirts and trousers to complete the ensemble in time for their Christmas concert.

"We heard of their plight," said Mrs. Klein. "Mrs. Blanton suggested we might find some way to help out."

Mrs. Klein explained that due to the limited storage space at the Shop, those who wish to contribute white elephants, rummage or household goods should keep them in their homes until Thursday, Dec. 4, when they can bring them to the Thrift Shop for pricing. "We are always concerned about the kids in our town," said Mrs. Blanton, "and this is one thing we can do to help out."

City Gets Road Tax Of $4,404

BELLEVILLE-Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections for July through September of this year are being distributed to Michigan counties, cities and villages, State Highway Director Henrik E. Stafseth, reported.

The City of Belleville will receive the sum of $4,404 in road tax refunds.

Total net receipts for the three month period amounted to $72.49 million, an increase of 8.3 percent compared to the same period of 1968.

Receipts are derived from license plates fees and a state tax on gasoline and diesel fuel collected by the state for the highway fund.

Bishop Emrich is Coming For Confirmation Service

BELLEVILLE-The Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, bishop of the Diocese of Michigan, Episcopal Church will be at Trinity Episcopal Church, 11575 Belleville road, on Sunday, Nov. 23, at the 10 a.m. Service, to conduct the Confirmation of 11 young people and five adults.

Confirmation, a Lay Ordination, is a dedication of each person to God's service, a means of grace, the completion of Christian initiation.

Those receiving Confirmation are: Paul Bryan, Steven Davis, Charlene Harris, Sharon Petrasky, Steven Prouty, Sandra Scothorn, Laura Story, Paul Salisbury, Gilbert

Thom, Lois Verde, Don Wilhelm and Clyde and Donna Clark, George Henriksson, and Olga Henriksson and Florence McBride.

A RECEPTION in the Parish Hall for the newly confirmed class, their families and friends, with an opportunity to meet the bishop, will be held after the service.

ELECTS OFFICERS

Romulus Youth Baseball Association Issues Report

ROMULUS-The Romulus Youth Baseball Association elected new officers and submitted the following victories report.

On July 23, 1969 at the Romulus Junior High School a general meeting was held to elect a new president and board of directors for the Youth Baseball Association. Parents and coaches who took part in the 1969 program were eligible to vote for the new board of directors.

The membership at that time sought fit to re-elect five members of the 1969 board. The original 1969 board was made up of four members of the Jaycees: Ron Halvin, Dan Lenossi, Bob Walicki, Jack Bosworth, and four members of the Romulus Recreation Commission: Jim Foley, Stan Gnas, Mrs. Marie DeBuyscher, and Mrs. Mickie Lopota.

The five members re-elected were Dan Lenossi, Jack Bosworth, Stan Gnas, Marie DeBuyscher, and Ron Halvin.

THE REMAINING directors elected represent each area of the township they are as follows: Lowell Johnson, George Sedlacek, Jerry Kittle, Doug Baum, Merlin Lemmon, John Varcek, Stan Syroka Jr., Mickie Lopota, Gene Madej, Mrs. Marge McCloskey, Mrs. Irene Gnas, Jack Rarick, Chuck Lenderman, Al Harris, Harry Hunter, Wallace Brown, Jim Grizzle, Jim LaFramboise, Shirley Gilbert and Jan Lemmon.

At a regular monthly meeting held Sept. 22, 1969 by the Board of Directors, new officers were elected to serve for the coming year. Elected were: Vice-President, Doug Baum; Secretary, Jan Lemmon; Treasurer, Merlin Lemmon; Publicity Chairman, Marie DeBuyscher; Chief Umpire, Stan Gnas; Equipment Manager, Dan Lenossi; Head Coach, Lowell Johnson; Candy Chairman, Jack Bosworth.

It was declared that the Romulus Youth Organization is no longer affiliated, or part of the Jaycees, Romulus Recreation, or Romulus Little League Football or any other organization.

AT THE monthly meeting held Nov. 4, at the residence of Doug Baum, replacements were sought for Shirley Gilbert as she resigned and the death of Jim LaFramboise. The new members are Deanna Lovenduski and Helen Kropat.

The new board has taken steps to bring to a close the candy sales for last year. The outstanding monies have been turned over to legal authorities for final settlement.

Plans are under way for the new season in 1970, with the hopes that every boy wishing to participate in this program may do so. All coaches still having uniforms are asked to please return to Robert Walicki, 34892 Michele IMMEDIATELY.

The Youth Baseball year books are now on sale for $1. This book has pictures of all teams and sponsors names. It is something your boys will always treasure. We urge you to support the Youth Baseball Association for 1970 with your purchase of this book. Remember your children receive the benefits of this program.

For books contact, Robert Walicki 34892 Michele; Jan Lemmon, 36897 Porter; Deanna Lovenduski, 16139 Dodge; Helen Kropat, 30731 Cherry Avenue; or Marie DeBuyscher, 37839 Westvale.

"We would like to thank all the sponsors, merchants and all the Romulus residents who purchased candy from the boys to help make this program a program we will all enjoy in the future years. We sincerely hope you will continue to support the Youth Baseball Organization," officials stated.

Boosters' Meeting Reported

ROMULUS-The Romulus High School Band and Orchestra Boosters' met in the Band Room on Thursday night, Nov. 13. There were nineteen people in attendance; minutes were read and reports given.

Mrs. Linda Mathews, orchestra teacher, explained the need for matching skirts and trousers to be worn with the blazers, recently authorized by the Board of Education.

The matter was discussed with references to the urgent need for replacement of band uniforms. It was explained that they were too small for many of the players and that they were in disrepair from use and weather.

It was also explained that until receipts were collected for the candy sale, there were no funds available for the purchase of either.

Hot Lunch Program

ROMULUS-The Cory PTA began their Hot Lunch program on Wednesday, Nov. 12. Hot Lunch Chairman Mrs. Shirley Linderman plans to serve the lunches each week.

The menu will be varied featuring hamburgers and hot dogs with chips and desert. The cost will be 35 cents.

A group of seven mothers prepared and served hamburgers to the approximately 500 students attending Cory School.

These past two weeks were really going by quietly. This was all right for a while.

The student body always has had something to look forward to, a game or an assembly. The students really started wondering what was coming up, we knew it was worth waiting for.

The only real movin' and groovin' time was the gym classes. We needed clues to find out what was going to happen. The first clue was made clear, a pep assembly for our last football game.

"THERE MUST be more to it," thought the students. Friday came and so did the last hour assembly.

Whoaa! Yaa! Fu! CRASH! Boy, we were surprised we had a real treat. It was a Korean Karate demonstration. Wow!

Eagle Notes

I'll never make any fun at those fellas, and girls. I was really surprised, girls breaking boards and bricks, and all I can say is wow! It was held for memberships in the Romulus chapter of the Korean Karate Clubs. It's really something else.

That karate must really work as the football team won over Robichaud. Good goin' Eagles.

Students really missed out on a good thing. That is those of you who haven't purchased your 69-70 yearbook. "It's going to be better than any other," says Cheryl Heridia. The editor for this year.

IT REALLY will be great, this year's staff is more experienced and will really do the job.

Think about it, spring time comes, everybody has a yearbook except you. That's really sad.

The students have been really excited, our basketball team is starting to move so all other teams, "GET READY CAUSE HERE WE COME!"

Romulus Democrats Set Meet

ROMULUS-The Romulus Democratic Club will hold a meeting on Nov. 20 at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, located on Huron River Drive. The meeting starts at 8 p.m., Alfred J. Perry, club president announced.

An executive board session will be held at 7 p.m., an hour before the regular scheduled meeting.

A turkey and Refreshment Raffle will be held followed by refreshments.

PTA To Hear Mistele

ROMULUS-The Cory PTA will hold their regular meeting on Dec. 1 at 7:30 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose room of Cory Elementary School, 35200 Smith Road.

The speaker will be Robert Mistele, Michigan Director of Christian Athletics. He spent 11 years as a professional baseball player and 20 years as a football coach.

Mistele will speak concerning the value of building character and spiritual education among youth.

Richendollar, Pratt Disappointed but Hopeful

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Staff Writer

Though their goals are the same-to-win - Romulus Head Coach George Pratt also found the going tough this season.

It takes time and talent and patience to build a winner, Pratt knew this when he began guiding the fortunes of the Eagles three years ago, but that doesn't make losing any easier or ease his disappointment of the outcome of a 1-7-1 season.

The dedicated mentor took over a school which had dropped into the habit of losing. Add to this the fact that reserve, freshman and junior high football was completely cancelled last year because of a lack of funds and you begin to see the picture. However, while Pratt is not complaining, it will set back his rebuilding timetable somewhat.

"It may not seem by our 1-7-1 won-loss record that we're making much progress, but I believe we're beginning to improve gradually," the likeable Pratt said this week in assessing his team's fortunes this past year.

"Remember, we had no reserve, freshmen or junior football teams at all last year. This means a year lost in ability and confidence and experience for every player in this age group," he explained.

"We had some boys reluctant to come out for the varsity team this year because they didn't play last year at all and didn't think they could make the team. Some of these boys turned out to be our finest players."

Pratt added: "If we'd have had some depth, some boys coming off the bench to 'push' the regulars and make them play harder, we would have done better, I'm sure."

He mentioned attitude. "There's no getting around it, many of the boys around here are so used to losing that they have almost come to take it for granted and when we lost our opener to Livonia

Franklin, 14-0, they thought: 'We go again.'"

Pratt mentioned that scheduling schools more in line with their enrollment and ability would add to the possibility of success. "Lincoln Park was ranked No. 2 in the state and Franklin always has a good team. We're dropping those two next year and adding another pair, including Gibraltar Carlson."

"Our reserves did a fine job this year and we had some outstanding players on the freshman and junior high teams, plus we are really starting to roll with our Little League football program which should help us greatly in years to come," the affable Pratt said. "Other communities have these programs and we hope to compete favorably with them in the future."

There is one dark cloud still hanging over the Romulus football picture. "There's a school millage vote in the spring and if it fails, our reserve, freshman and junior high football program will again go out the window and be dropped." I hope it passes so we can continue in our efforts to build a winner," Pratt said.

Veteran West Coach Is Tops in ANP Area

How can you improve on a "perfect season"? That's what Garden City West cross country Coach Bill Pinnell must be pondering after his Tigers ran to an undefeated 13-0 record in the recently completed season.

It was the first time in his 12-year coaching career that the veteran mentor had had a perfect dual meet record. And only a few coaches can boast that feat.

For his outstanding coaching accomplishment, the Associated Newspapers honor Bill Pinnell as their "Coach of the Year".

Pinnell, who earned his Bachelor of Science in Education from Adrian and his masters in Administration of Physical Education from the University of Michigan, inaugurated cross country programs at both Garden City East and West High.

He has had only two losing seasons in the 12 years. Both losing years were those that launched the programs.

Pinnell's team not only went undefeated in the 1969 campaign, it also won a share of the Schoolcraft Invitational, tying Farmington for top honors, claimed its third consecutive Western Wayne Invitational Second Race championship; and also won a share of its first Tri-River Conference title.

In a regional packed with power, West emerged in fifth place, qualifying one of its runners for the State Finals. From the regional that West competed in emerged the eventual state champ, Ann Arbor Huron.

Pinnell has no secret formula for success.

But he has tried a couple of innovations this year in order to better motivate his athletes.

"There's no denying it that those athletes who run in cross country have to be made of 'sterner stuff,'" said Coach Pinnell. "There is no glory, only few fans and, therefore, you have a special breed of youngsters that come out for cross country."

"And it will be tougher next season when the 2-miles will probably be increased to 2 1/2 miles for preps," he said. "I've tried something that other sports and coaches have tried and that's printing a newsletter about our activities and sending them out to parents."

"I think we have made headway in that parents are coming to meets," Pinnell said.

Interest generated by those newsletters, according to the Tiger coach, helped West post a close 27-28 victory over defending league champ, Southgate, which also made the difference in the battle for the league title.

With that dual meet victory over the Sabers, West managed to gain a split when the Tigers lost to Southgate in the League Meet. West finished 6-0 in league competition.

WEST'S PINNELL
Coach of the Year

'Unique Breed' - All-Area Harriers

A "unique breed" - that's how coaches refer to members of cross country teams be it in high school or college. Unique because harriers are masochists getting little recognition for their athletic accomplishments.

But, though, football rules the autumn athletic scene - harriers have over the past few years been able to take some of the limelight away from the gridgers.

And the ASSOCIATED NEWSPAPERS are honored to present this week our "special breed", the 1969 All-Area Cross Country Team and an undefeated coach: Garden City West's Bill Pinnell, to guide it.

Pinnell's Tigers compiled a 6-0 league record and a 13-0 dual meet mark to finish the 1969 campaign with the school's first perfect record and the share of the Tri-River Conference championship, that latter accomplishment was also a first for the five year old school.

Leading the selections is one of Pinnell's own proteges, Don Andersen, a junior who finished sixth at the State Finals, captured the Tri-River League title and by doing so avenged his solo loss (to Riverside's Julius Aiello).

Also honored on the '69 All-Area squad are West's Dave Conley; Wayne Memorial's Gary Schultz and John Drotar; Livonia Franklin's Jim Kosteva; Garden City East's Tim Laing; and John Glenn's Terry Marchand.

Two Cherry Hill juniors, Jeff Pearce and Phil Seibold, as well as Franklin's John Dawe were awarded Honorable Mention.

Andersen and Conley are both holdovers from last year's mythical squad and they formed the nucleus of West's undefeated team.

One of four to qualify for the State Finals, Andersen matured into one of the top runners in the state and has, by virtue of his sixth place finish in the state this season, set himself up as one of the harriers to beat in 1970.

"He ranks among the top athletes I've ever coached," said Coach Pinnell, commenting of the 16-year-old junior. "And, no doubt about it, he's going to be a serious contender for the state title next year."

Aside from state, regional and conference honors, Andersen also won a trophy in the Western Wayne Invitational Meet, where he and his team finished first in the Second Race.

Conley, handicapped in the latter part of the season due to illness, was West's No. 2 man. He earned a third place in the Western Wayne. He was beaten only four times this season in dual meet competition and contributed strongly to Tiger success at the Schoolcraft Invitational.

If Conley had been at full-strength for the league meet, West may not have been forced to give up half of the conference crown to Southgate, a team which they had beaten in dual meet competition.

Wayne Memorial also has two fine representatives on

Strange Phenomenon: Tiger Grid Fans

Since we're in Belleville, let's stay there for a couple of more paragraphs. It might stir some of the other areas into action.

The going has been rough on Tiger gridgers this season. They won only one league game and finished with a 3-6 overall record.

But, no sunshine patriots are these Belleville fans!

Rain or shine, win or lose, they flocked into the stands to support their team. Even in torrential rains and on the last night of the season, fans from Belleville jammed Wayne Memorial stands to root for their Tigers against Glenn.

"What can I say but 'thank you,'" remarked Hidenfelter, "our folks are great, just great."

Asked to explain this strange phenomenon, the Belleville AD said he couldn't, but added: "Our people love their team - win or lose - or they wouldn't support them the way they do."

"They're just wonderful people, who love football."

Just makes one wonder what would happen if Belleville ever won a league championship.

On a second thought, they better not - the governor would need to send out the National Guard to keep the peace.

ANDERSEN LEADS ANP SELECTION

(Continued from 1st Sports) this season's team: Drotar and Schultz provided the 1-2 punch (not necessarily in that order) for Coach Dick Miller's Zebras.

Schultz wound up his prep cross country career with the Western Wayne Invitational trophy in the First Race. He also shattered a score of records, posting course marks at Ypsilanti, Garden City East and Riverview.

Gary, in winning the WW meet, also established a new mark for that meet. He was the No. 1 Zebra runner in '69.

The Zebra captain finished fifth in a 140-member regional and 20th at the 90-member Class "A" state finals. Gary's only dual meet loss was handed to him by Andersen.

Also a senior, Drotar has lettered three of his four years on Wayne's team to earn the distinction of being the first runner to be on the Zebra cross country squad for four years.

He also was named the Most Valuable Member of the Wayne Memorial team in 1969.

Laing co-captained the East Panthers and ran in the No. 1 spot all season. A veteran harrier who holds the East High course record at 1:30, Laing also holds the best junior time recorded for the school.

"He has been an outstanding example of discipline and hard work," said Coach Ron Clifton, "his presence on the team has made a great difference for all."

Tim was also voted as the Athlete of the Month last month at East.

Runnerup in the Mid-Wayne League Meet, Laing is an outstanding student. He is a member of the National Honor Society.

"It has been a pleasure to coach such an outstanding individual," concludes Coach Clifton.

Making his debut on the All-Area team is Glenn's Marchand who also is the only performer from Coach Jerry Szukaitis' Rockets. Marchand, aside from finishing better than any Glenn runner at the Regionals, holds the school record at 10:47.

A junior with tremendous potential, Marchand will be counted upon by the Rockets to lead them in 1970.

"I think he has great potential," says Coach Szukaitis, "and he can develop into one of our best cross country men."

Look for Terry to break all the middle distance records from the 880 through the 2-mile, at Glenn when track season rolls along.

In a league noted for its cross country talent, Franklin's Kosteva moved right to the top of the field. A veteran of three cross country campaigns, Kosteva helped the Patriots to a second place finish - forcing N. Farmington to end its 13-dual meet winning streak with a tie.

The Pats were denied the league title when N. Farmington posted a decisive victory at the League Meet.

Jim made it to the State Finals for the second straight year after finishing seventh in the regionals.

His absence in the cross country lineup will be felt by Coach Bob Holmes and the Patriots.

Cherry Hill, which wound up with its best season ever, had been plagued by injuries throughout most of the year, but Seibold and Pearce provided the Spartans and Coach Joe Grasley with the consistency that helped the team to a third place finish in the Tri-River League.

The two juniors, along with John Dawe, a sophomore from Franklin, were given Honorable Mention on this year's All-Area team.

Veteran West Coach Is Tops

Like most other sports cross country also has gone through a metamorphosis and Pinnell's best team at East High in 1963 would have difficulty placing runners on this year's squad.

In '63, a year before he moved over to West Senior High, Pinnell's Panthers captured the inaugural Western Wayne Meet, were Mid-Wayne champs and second to host Redford Union at the invitational.

"Though I must say that these two teams, the one I just coached and the one at East in 1963 are about compatible, few if any of these boys who were on that team at East could be able to run with those on this squad."

And, like everything else, nowadays, in order to succeed in cross country, athletes must occupy themselves not seasonally, but the entire year.

"Kids must be dedicated, must be ready to sacrifice in order to succeed and those are the criteria of victory in cross country. From June 15 to Aug. 15, my boys have a plan to follow and that's running something like 250 miles."

"Some schools in Illinois follow a 1,000 mile course plan to get their athletes ready for competition, so you see you really have to be dedicated in order to make the grade nowadays."

Married to Geneva, the Pinnells have two children Bonnie, 10 and Bill 8. they make their home in Garden City.

Pinnell's search for talent begins in the junior high schools. He sets up appointments with youngsters who have shown interest in track and, along with a few of his top runners, pays the lads and the school a visit to discuss the possibility of coming out for the sport.

It's been a little easier to spot potential candidates in junior highs since those schools have inaugurated the half-mile event for eighth and ninth graders.

But West has had the disadvantage of building its teams without the benefit of ninth graders.

"Those schools which house ninth grades have an edge," said Coach Pinnell. "These schools have four years to develop their candidates, but we have actually three years to mature."

Does he have enough talent to keep his 13-dual meet winning streak alive next year?

"It's going to be tough," says Coach Pinnell, "but we're going to try."

SETTING THE BEAT-They're strutting along, setting the beat and, aside from the musical beat, they'd like to see their team, Romulus, beat their rivals.

Twin-Valley Honor Roll

Romulus placed three men on the all-league team as the Twin Valley announced the star-studded honor roll this week.

One offensive and two defensive players were included in the list.

Russell Reaume, outstanding linebacker who led the team with 69 tackles and 52 assists this year, was picked for a linebacker spot. The 5-11, 170 pounder was a bulwark on defense in every game and should make an outstanding college prospect.

Also sharing defensive honors with Reaume was stocky 5-10, 160 pound guard Leon James. James, who sparked the defense with his enthusiastic fire, made 68 tackles and had 41 assists after missing the first two games with an injury and being slowed for a while after his return.

Rounding out Romulus' contribution to the "dream team" was offensive tackle Tim Sypula. The 5-10, 230 pound bulldozer cleared the way for much of the Eagles' ground game and labored unrecognized in the middle of the offensive line while the backs were getting the glory.

Honorable mention

all-league honors were given to fullback Dave Brown, a hard-driving runner, who led the team in rushing with 380 yards in 95 carries. Interior guard Gary Stanek, who made 38 solo tackles and aided on 19 others, was also named. Coach George Pratt said all five of the boys richly deserved the honors.

Sponsor Rabbit Hunt

The Perry, Mich. Lions Club is sponsoring a Bow & Arrow rabbit hunt to be held on Sunday, Nov. 30 on Evanoff Farm. The farm is located five miles northwest of Perry on Beardslee Road.

The first place prize is $100 in merchandise certificates, good at stores in the city or $50 in cash.

Hunting starts at 10 a.m. and hunters are urged to bring their own dogs.

This Black Bear Is Just a Beggar

PANHANDLING BLACK BEAR GOES BEGGING

An affable black bear who earned his living begging handouts from motorists traveling US-41 near Copper Harbor may now be out of business.

Charles Flory of Crystal Falls, a maintenance superintendent for the Department of State Highways, said the bear repeatedly stopped cars by blocking the road. Each time, he would proceed down the line of halted vehicles, pausing briefly at each to beg. At times he held up as many as 15 vehicles, creating a traffic hazard.

The Highway Department's Manual of Uniform Control Devices and Regulations does not permit panhandling on state highways, so Flory and his crew reported the bear to the Department of Natural Resources. Conservation men tranquilized the bear and moved him from the area.

It wasn't long before the bear was back and up to his old tricks.

Tranquilized a second time, he was carried across rivers and swamps to a wooded area 25 miles away. He has not returned.

Said Flory: "It's too bad in a way. He's the nicest bear you'd ever want to meet."

The Salvation Army was organized in 1865.

Dog Tag Sale is Started

ROMULUS—Dog Licenses for the coming year are now on sale, Romulus Township Treasurer Joseph Wallis, announced. The sale started on Monday, Nov. 17.

Current dog licenses expired in March, 1970. The early sale announcement was made to make sure that all dog owners have an opportunity to procure licenses for their pets.

Dog license fees are as follows: Male, $1.50; female, $2.50; and unsexed animals, $1.50. The licenses are obtainable at the treasurer's office, second of the Township Hall Monday through Friday.

Currently there are outstanding some 1,700 dog licenses. There is a $15 fine upon conviction on a No Dog License charge.

Don't Forget the Floors---- A Decorator's Foundation

The foundation of any good decorating scheme is just that... its foundation, or its floor. Choice of the right floor covering can add the final decor touch to a room, as well as tying together the entire design theme.

The type of floor covering you select should be determined by the room's function, amount of traffic, insulation and sound-proofing needs, type of cleaning equipment available and, most importantly, your personal preference.

can be as practical in the bath or kitchen as in other rooms.

Floor coverings can be divided into several basic types: wall-to-wall carpeting, area rugs, room-size rugs, natural wood (in long boards or parquet), and tile squares of sheeting in linoleum vinyl, cork, rubber or asphalt.

Wall-to-wall carpeting will visually enlarge the size of a room since it offers an unbroken sweep of color. It is easy to care for with frequent vacuuming and shampooing once or twice a year.

blends of natural and man-made fibers in a variety of colors, patterns and textures. Dyes are true and clear and keep their beauty for the life of the rug.

Wall-to-wall carpeting can be had in any price range to fit your budget. Whatever your choice of fiber, however, do not economize on the cushioning. Top quality cushioning extends the life of the carpeting, protects fibers against shock of repeated traffic, and fills in uneven spaces of floor that could cause worn spots.

New carpets come in tweed and textural effects, shags, vivid floral and contemporary designs, formal traditional patterns, will geometrics, plush deep piles and even a flat linen look.

Indoor-outdoor carpeting is bigger than ever, and with proper cushioning is being used in the family room, kitchen and bath, as well as patios, terraces and poolsides. This carpeting is also available in the form of tiles, allowing attractive arrangement in checker-board or other patterns as well as easy replacement in heavy traffic areas.

"Room-size" is the name given to the standard six, nine, 12 and 15 foot width rugs. These are usually purchased, cut and bound and ready to lay.

Just as with wall-to-wall carpeting, room-size rugs come in every color, pattern and texture to fit every decorating need. And, just as with wall-to-wall carpeting, cushioning is all-important for guaranteeing a long life for your rug. The pad for a room-size rug should measure no less than 1/4 inch smaller than the rug on all sides.

An advantage of room-size rugs is that they may be sent out of the home for professional cleaning periodically. Also, room-size rugs may be turned every few months to equally distribute traffic.

Area-rugs-in square, oval, round, oblong or free-form shapes can prove real decorating accents. They may be used over wall-to-wall carpeting, as well as over natural wood or other hard-surfaced flooring to define and set aside one living area from another or to accent certain areas or pieces of furniture.

Color pattern and fiber choices in area rugs are unlimited and can be found to complement or contrast with any decorating scheme or furniture style. Many are available with fringe or braid edge to add an extra style note.

Smaller area rugs are usually washable or can be cleaned in do-it-yourself cleaning establishments. Their many advantages, however, is that they may easily be changed or rearranged to accent different furnishings.

One word of warning—be sure that area rugs are large enough, when used to set off a furniture grouping, that at least part of each piece of furniture sits on the rug. Otherwise, the group may look skimpy.

Natural wood is the most popular of hard-surface floorings. When combined with area rugs, natural wood flooring can be a most distinctive decorating accent.

Never wash wood flooring with soap and water or detergents. This will destroy the seal. Wood floors should be dry mopped regularly and cleaned with special wax-based cleaners made for wood floors, periodically. Waxing (one to four times a year depending on traffic) and regular buffing will keep wood floors looking their best.

Never varnish over wax or existing varnish. If floors are in good shape, cleaning with steel wool (preferably by a professional) is all that is needed before varnishing. If floors are especially worn, sanding (a gain by a professional) will be needed before revarnishing.

THE EVER-POPULAR Spanish influence is felt in this dining area created by Tom Oakley for B. Brody Seating Co. Chair covering colors are picked up in the maroon rug and black accented grasscloth wallpaper. An "America at Home - Fall 1969" room at the American Furniture Mart.

If You Want Walnut; Read the Tag First

In shopping for furniture have you ever had difficulty determining whether a certain item was genuine walnut, for example, or a mere imitation?

Many customers have, especially in cases where the retailer did not make use of the tag or label identification for walnut furniture available to him from the American Walnut Manufacturers' Association.

But now the Federal Trade Commission hopes to remove all consumer doubts on such matters so they can buy with complete confidence.

The Commission has proposed a set of guidelines for the household furniture industry—including manufacturers, retailers and distributors—which would require full disclosure of the use of materials which simulate wood and other materials. No effective date for the guidelines had been set at this writing.

According to their provisions the industry should not distribute any product under any representation, including failure to disclose material facts, which will tend to deceive purchasers.

The disclosures should be made clearly so they can be noted by a prospective purchaser and should be attached to the product permanently enough to remain there until its sale to a consumer, the FTC said.

The affirmative disclosure requirements can be fulfilled either by stating what the material is or what it is not, the guidelines state.

Failure to comply with the provisions "may be unfair trade practice and a violation of Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act," under terms of the guidelines.

The American Walnut Manufacturers' Association has long cooperated with furniture producers and retailers in a voluntary program of identification of walnut furniture for the protection of the consumer. The association offers hang tags and labels for use on qualified furniture pieces.

One tag reads, "Genuine Walnut Veneers and Other Solid Hardwoods." It states that furniture of this construction "properly includes the use of genuine walnut veneers on all exposed panels, except for inlays and accents, and other solid hardwoods for all exposed solid parts."

The second tag carries this message: "All Veneers and Solids of Genuine Walnut." Furniture qualified to bear this tag has genuine walnut veneers on all exposed panels, except for inlays and accents. All exposed solid parts are of genuine solid walnut. The tag also assures the customer that the article contains no printed imitation grains.

A third tag bears the identification, "Solid Walnut." It states that, "Only furniture and other items with all exposed wood parts (legs, stretchers, tops, etc.) made of solid walnut may bear this label."

The labels are of two types. One reads, "Solid American Walnut." Articles bearing this label may include the use of other species for drawer slides and similar parts, but all exposed parts must be of American walnut lumber.

The second label reads, "Genuine American Walnut." Articles bearing this identification properly include the use of other species of veneers for inlays and similar decorative uses. Any plywood used must be predominantly of walnut and the solid parts of American walnut lumber.

Pending enforcement of the proposed FTC guidelines, consumers would be well advised to continue to look for the walnut hang tags or labels on furniture under consideration. These are your assurance that the items are of real walnut, not an imitation, the walnut association declares.

Walnut Supply Is Bolstered

Conservation is the name of the game today in the American black walnut industry.

Faced with soaring domestic and foreign demand for this prized hardwood, the American Walnut Manufacturers' Association is concentrating much of its activity on supporting research and encouraging the planting of more walnut trees as well as better care of existing trees to stimulate their growth and improve quality.

The association annually contributes financial support to various research studies by the North Central Forest Experiment Station, part of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Forest Service. In addition, several companies in the industry are engaged in independent conservation and research projects.

The focal point of North Central's studies is the Walnut Research Center on the campus of Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Ill. This is the world's leading research facility for black walnut culture.

The end result of the center's effort, researchers believe, will be more and better black walnut for future generations of Americans to enjoy in the form of fine furniture, paneling, architectural woodwork, gunstocks and novelties.

Features of the center include a 40-acre research farm for breeding genetically improved walnut.

Key Products in The Space Age

The builders who will be using "Space Age" products in 1970 will find sales and rentals hitting peak levels. But not the builders who are still trying to market the old "Horse and Buggy" products.

So get on the ball, fellows, if you want to sharply cut sales resistance in the next year. Just keep in mind the well known fact that the greater the excellence and convenience that is built into a product the greater the customers' acceptance and demand.

You will find this greater excellence and convenience in the new "Space Age" products distributed by Key Distributors. Their "New Concept in Counter Top Cooking" illustrates this point. The ladies will very much appreciate the easy to clean top and will be delighted to know that spill-over worries are forever ended. This unit is made by Modern Maid, Inc., of Chattanooga, Tenn., a firm which has been a leading pioneer in the custom appliance field.

Key Distributors will be glad to send you free illustrated literature. Call them at 561-2100. Or better yet - why not drop in and view their "Space Age" products at 8250 Telegraph.

You Can't Tell Styles Without Program

Selecting the right style furniture for your home and your family can be made easier if you are familiar with style "terminology."

Today, the words "style" and "period" are used interchangeably in the furniture world. However, the word style actually refers to the use of certain design characteristics; whereas period designates a measure of time when these characteristics were popularized.

Design characteristics help identify furniture of the various periods. These characteristics are copied or adapted by designers and manufacturers to create today's styles.

Each furniture manufacturer identifies his lines with descriptive names than can often be confusing to the consumer. Some basics hold true, however, and an understanding of these can be helpful when purchasing furniture.

Most styles will fit within three broad areas: traditional, provincial and contemporary.

Tradition includes those styles with design characteristics typical of master craftsmen of past generations. Much of the traditional furniture was first designed for royal courts and nobility. Through the years it has been associated with elegance and formality.

The court styles of each country (which make up traditional styling) were copied in simplified versions for the masses. This furniture is referred to as provincial (or country or rural). The French and Italian Provincial and Early American styles are typical examples. True provincial styling always denotes simplicity and comfort designed for informal living.

Contemporary (or modern) includes a broad group of designs that are adapted for modern methods of production and today's living needs. Contemporary is inspired by traditional styles, yet makes use of modern materials and methods of manufacture. Most contemporary furnishings are light in scale and appearance, versatile in use and easy to care for.

Six Airlines Cited For Pollution

ROMULUS-Six airlines with facilities at Metropolitan Airport have been accused of contributing to the 26 tons of air pollution dumped at the airport each day in formal citations initiated by the Wayne County Health Department.

Morton Sterling, director of pollution control for the Wayne County Health Department, reported last Thursday that he has issued citations to Northwest, United, North Central, American, Delta and Trans World Airlines.

The citations were based on recommendation made by his investigators who conducted a one-day study of pollution at Metro on Oct. 8.

CITATIONS AGAINST 16 planes belonging to the six firms were recommended, Sterling said.

He reported that representatives of the airlines have agreed to meet with him tomorrow, Thursday, Nov. 20, to discuss the problem.

Sterling stated that he had notified the airlines that Health Department investigators discovered the airlines' aircraft emit dense black smoke, mainly on takeoffs and landings.

He requested that they notify him on what action they will take to correct the problem and when they will take action.

If the matter goes to court, the airlines could be subject to $100 a day cost until it stops the pollution.

COUNTY HEALTH officials estimate the offending jets emit a total of six tons of solid and semi-solid matter at Metro each day. It would take emissions from the exhaust of 40,000 cars to equal that amount, Sterling said.

John Gamble, chairman of the Detroit Committee of the Airport Transport Association reported that steps are already being taken to cut down smoke.

Brokers Schedule Meeting

DETROIT-Region VIII of the National Association of Real Estate Brokers, Inc., will hold a two-day series of seminars Dec. 5-6 devoted to FHA programs 235, 236, 237 and the new Truth in Lending Law, at the Detroit Hilton Hotel, 1565 Washington Boulevard, Detroit.

High School Band Cited For Parade

ROMULUS-The Romulus High School Band participated in the Veteran's Day Parade on Tuesday, Nov. 11, Band Boosters' president, Mrs. May Muggelberg reported.

The Band marched from the Fisher Freeway to Cadillac Square, she said, and the march began at 8 p.m.

Transportation, by chartered bus, was provided by the VFW. Those who accompanied the band members were: Mrs. Ruth Leppen, Mrs. Frank Lienneke, Mrs. Muggelberg and Band Master, Gideon Pettway.

The Band was awarded a trophy for their participation and received a standing ovation when they passed the reviewing stand, said Mrs. Muggelberg.

Supervisors Endorse Lucas for Sheriff Post

A resolution endorsing Wayne County Undersheriff William Lucas to succeed Sheriff Roman S. Gribbs when the latter resigns to become mayor of Detroit was adopted by the Wayne County Board of Supervisors (Nov. 7) by a 16 to 3 vote, with four abstentions.

The resolution recommends Lucas to the three-member committee which will appoint an interim Sheriff to serve until a new Sheriff is elected in the fall of 1970. The selection committee consists of the County Clerk, Prosecuting Attorney and presiding judge of Probate Court.

Supervisor Eugene A. Sikora, of Detroit, D-District 7, sponsor of the resolution, declared that Lucas is "the most qualified man" and that his appointment would "take the job out of the realm of politics."

In a unanimous action, the Board of Supervisors adopted a resolution saluting Emil Mazey, Secretary-Treasurer of the United Auto Workers Union, for 36 years of leadership in the labor movement.

The resolution, sponsored by Supervisor George F. Killen, of Detroit, D-District 2, coincided with a testimonial dinner in honor of Mazey.

Sewer Hook-up Studied

BELLEVILLE-A communication from the Wayne County Health Department requesting an extension of sewer service to the Belleville Point Trailer Park, located on Denton Road, is under study of the Van Buren Township Board.

The park is owned by the Detroit Edison Company and is used by vacationing employees during the summer. The Health Department asked for a hook-up to township water and sewer system, to permit the installation of septic tanks.

Turning Leaves

Turning leaves mean a change of season,
Color changes from summer to fall,
But for me leaves often mean pages
Off books I've read-I can't read them all.

I'm often haunting library shelves,
And the sales of auctioneers,
Leaves and pages, novels and poems,
Serious books, some full of tears.

Big books, small books, all kinds of books,
Paper covered or books well bound,
Histories, philosophies, literature,
My reading covers lots of ground.

Books are ever my favorite pastime,
And no matter what the weather,
We can discuss those "turning leaves",
Whenever good friends get together.

Vest Pocket Off to Auspicious Start

BY HOWARD ALLEN
ANP Amusement Critic

The Vest Pocket Theatre, the new Nederlander off-Broadway showcase, is off to a most auspicious start with Mart Crowley's compelling, and intensely personal examination of homosexuals, "The Boys in the Band."

The New York producers have prepared a special-for-Detroit company which maintains all of the high standards set in New York. The set and staging are faithful to the original.

The gay world is not easy to portray because of the difficulty in arousing any serious empathetic reaction among the audience. Crowley succeeds by keeping his characters dead honest. You may never attend the sort of birthday party that "the boys in the band" did but you do believe that Crowley has captured the essence of such matters and he is able to blend comedy and high tragedy in acceptable measures to produce a work of striking maturity.

"The Boys in the Band" concerns a birthday party being thrown by an anguished gay blade who wishes he were heterosexual; his imperfections are having a most corrosive effect upon his stability. A crisis arises from the unexpected visit of a straight friend and Michael's efforts to keep this friend from finding out the truth drive him to an emotional point of sheer viciousness.

He attempts to drag his friends down to the levels of his own despair through games which parallel in their savagery those played in "Virginia Wolff." But such efforts can only rebound and, at the end, it is Michael who suffers most.

George Pentecost as the anguished Michael heads an effective cast. One character whose potential is not realized as fully as it might have been is Page Johnson who fails to wring all the humor out of his role of the clown.

One of ye old cynic's basic tenets about musicals made into movies is that if there is a way for Hollywood to botch things up—they will. Exhibit A is "Can Can" which may be the most badly butchered musical of all times but you can't rule out "Fanny" or "Irma LaDouce" which unbelievably had their scores stripped from them. So it was with drive suspicion that I learned that "Paint Your Wagon's" book had undergone complete renovation.

Well, I was wrong. "Paint Your Wagon" is a brand new affair, true, but the Lerner and Loewe musical now on a reserved seat basis at the Madison, has scrapped a rather creaky book in favor of a bright, bouncy and bawdy bundle of not-to-be-missed excitement.

Lee Marvin lands himself in this year's Oscar derby with his performance as a drunken prospector who finds a boom town when he strikes gold while attempting to dig a grave for a deceased miner. The moment they fling the corpse out of the grave you know you're in for an earthy and wild evening and Lerner, who had Paddy Chafsky rewrite his stage book and then wrote his own screenplay doesn't disappoint.

What follows is in many ways similar to "Cat Ballou;" Marvin is certainly as dissolute—and just as funny. Marvin and Clint Eastwood share a wife, Jean Seberg, and their escapades—like tunneling under the city to get all the gold dust the miners spill through the floorboards of the town's many saloons. It builds to a wonderful finale.

Lerner retains his most impressive songs: "They Call the Wind Maria," "I Talk to the Trees," "Wandering Star," and others—and Andre Previn and Lerner add some new ones to fit the rebuilt story. The new ones aren't as impressive as the Lerner and Loewe tunes, but what they replace won't be missed either. The biggest disaster is allowing Marvin and Eastwood to sing for themselves. If ever a man should have been dubbed, Marvin is that man. What makes it even more embarrassing is the contrast of having a real single like Harvey Presnell handle "Maria."

Vocals aside, however, everything about "Paint Your Wagon," including the set, is utterly spectacular.

Sammy Davis, Jr., who just wrapped up a week's run at the Elmwood—and it's been a long time since they've done business like that—reinforces a conviction that he's the world's most complete entertainer. There may be singers with better voices, there may be better dancers and funnier comics, but there is nobody who can do more things well than Davis.

What really sells him however, is personality, the rapport he establishes with an audience is nothing if not miraculous. Davis today is a lot less formal than Davis of ten years ago. The act is more ad lib and the costumes more outrageous. A decade back Davis may have felt that he had to prove something. Well now he knows he proved it long ago.

Lots of Prizes Draw Crowds to Auto Show

DETROIT—There's a potfull of prizes awaiting lucky winners at the 54th Detroit Auto Show, running from noon to 11 p.m. daily through Sunday, November 23 at Cobo Hall.

There's plenty to see at the auto show, of course—more than 300 new passenger cars, trucks, recreational vehicles, dream cars and experimental cars. And various magicians, shapely models, celebrities, sports stars, and action exhibits. But if you feel a lucky streak coming on sometime before next Sunday, you might pick up:

jacket, various items of sports equipment, a miniature car, United States Savings bonds, key chains, racing games, and various other souvenirs.

Two of the exhibitors are giving away new cars with drawings in their exhibit areas. Two new 1970 Pontiac LeMans Hardtop Coupes will be given away following the show. And the Detroit Plymouth dealers will give away a 1970 Road Runner to some lucky Auto Show visitor.

The Chevrolet passenger car exhibit is giving away a gasoline-powered Chevy Junior each night of the Auto Show to some lucky youngsters.

The prestigious Motor City Specialty Clubs specialty shows at the Detroit Artillery Armory in Oak Park this Sunday offers an outstanding opportunity to view representatives of the nine participating breeds. A total of 913 dogs will be benched at the show beginning at 9 a.m. The breeds which will be exhibited are Great Danes (168), Doberman Pinschers (163), German Shepherds (136), Collies (115), Boxers (98), Shetland Sheepdogs (85), Weimaraners (55), Chihuahuas (47), and Miniature Schnauzers (42).

Wolverine Dog Training Club continues its ongoing program of obedience training at the VFW Hall, 25245 West Seven Mile Road, Redford. New novice classes are formed the first Tuesday of each month. Intermediate novice classes meet each Wednesday. For information call Jack or Alma Schreff at 427-4939.

Monroe Kennel Club's all-breed show on Saturday at the Airport Community High School in Carleton has a total entry of 822 dogs. Judging begins at 8 a.m.

Entries close Tuesday, November 25, for the Ingham County Kennel Club's all-breed show and obedience trial to be held Sunday, December 7, at the Lansing Civic Center in Lansing. Entries will be limited to 1,000 dogs. Superintendent is Bow Dog Shows, 9999 Broadstreet, Detroit 48204.

Send all news of new arrivals, recent show wins, etc., to Mike Murray, c/o Associated Newspapers, 2211 North Wayne Road, Westland, or call 273-7125.

PHOTOGRAPHIC ART

Five galleries of photographs of Detroit's Central City, all taken during the past year by J. Edward Bailey III, are now on display at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Entitled "The City Within," the photographs will be on view through Sunday, December 21. A catalogue with 68 of the scenes is available for $1 in the museum sales shops. It contains a preface by museum director Willis F. Woods, who hung the show; a piece by Joseph Kane, Time-Life News Service bureau chief who worked with photojournalist Bailey for three years, including Detroit's time of riots; and a statement by the artist.

TENOR AT EASTERN

Oscar Henry, well-known tenor, will give a solo recital at 8 p.m. Nov. 23 in Pease Auditorium on the Eastern Michigan University campus. Henry, a professor of music and chairman of the vocal division of the music department, came to Eastern last year after 20 years as a teacher of voice, choral conductor, and teacher of music history at various schools in Ohio, Louisiana, Virginia and Alabama.

OLD TIME MOVIES

The Famous Early Movies Series at the Henry Ford Museum is presenting what many film historians regard as one of the most famous of them all next Sunday, November 23. The film is Nanook of the North, the picture which gave birth to a whole new film technique - the documentary.

Famous Early Movies are shown each Sunday at 2 and 4 p.m. in the Museum Theater. There is no additional charge for the films beyond the regular Museum admission.

ANTIQUES AND SANTA

Shopping for men (and by men) becomes a pleasure among the man-pleasing gifts and exhibits at the Detroit Christmas Antiques Show-Sale in the Light Guard Armory, November 19 through 23.

Parking on the grounds is free. Hours of the Detroit Christmas Antiques Show-Sale in the Light Guard Armory, 4400 East Eight Mile Road, Wednesday through Sunday, November 19 through 23, will be from 1:00 to 11:00 p.m., with the final day closing hours, Sunday, November 23, at 9:00 p.m.

FILMS FOR KIDS

Films made by young people for young people will be featured in a "Fifth Saturday Special" by the Detroit Youth Theatre, November 29 at the Art Institute.

The Youth Film Festival will present animated films produced by youngsters, age 5 and up. The films range in length from 15 seconds to 5 minutes.

The hour-long film festival will be shown at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Tickets are $1.25 (groups of 20 or more, 75 cents) at the Art Institute Ticket Office (832-2730) and all J. L. Hudson ticket centers.

HELLO, DOLLY

Ann Squires has been named director of group sales for Ernest Lehman's production of "Hello, Dolly!", 20th Century-Fox's musical which will have its Michigan premiere at the Americana Theatre on Wednesday, December 17.

CERAMICS, ANYONE?

A hand-thrown pot nearly six feet high, fur and feathers applied to ceramic glazes, porcelain, Raku, traditionally useful forms and non-functional pieces to be admired only, these and many more items will be shown in the 3rd Annual Michigan Invitational Ceramics Show which opens Sunday, Nov. 16, in the Sill Hall Art Gallery at Eastern Michigan University.

The exhibit may be seen from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays until Dec. 15.

WAITING WIVES

On Tuesday night, November 18, at 7 p.m. there will be a meeting of the Waiting Wives Club at Selfridge Air Force Base Chapel Center. There will be a pot luck dinner, and each girl is asked to bring one of her favorite dishes to the pot luck.

For those of you who are new and would like a ride to Selfridge, call the Base Chapel, and they will have Jen Erickson, area caller, get in touch with you in regard to lining up a ride. The phone number is HO 5-1241, extensions 2611, 2612, or 2613.

We welcome anyone whose husband or fiancé is overseas or is stationed elsewhere in the United States, and who is interested in such things as going to plays, playing cards, working on various projects, and in just having a good time. We hope to see many of you there.

DETROIT AUTO SHOW

You'll hear the song of the open road and the call of the wild when you visit the 54th Detroit Auto Show, opening Saturday, November 15 for a nine-day run at Cobo Hall. And you'll be able to inspect the latest entries in the fast-growing recreational vehicle field.

A special section at the annual Auto Show is reserved for exhibits of Chevrolet, Dodge and Ford trucks of all sizes and shapes. There'll be a few of the big babies, like the Chevy Titan 90 extra-heavy duty diesel tractor. But the accent of all three displays will be on recreational vehicles.

TALL STORY

On November 21-22-23, 1969, the Tip Toppers Club of Detroit will hold its 29th Anniversary Weekend Convention at the Detroit Metro Inn, Merriman Road and I-94 Expressway, Romulus, Michigan.

Festivities will begin Friday evening at 9:00 p.m. with a welcoming party for tall people from most of the Midwest and parts of Canada.

Events will continue through Sunday evening, November 23, with a Dinner and Dance on Saturday night.

The club is open to men 6'2" or over and women 5'10" or over. Anyone meeting these heights requirements can contact the club by writing: Tip Toppers Club of Detroit, P.O. Box 1412, Detroit, Michigan, 48231.

CLIBURN VISITS

This week's Detroit Symphony concertgoers are in for a double header of World Series proportions. Pianist Van Cliburn and guest conductor Alexander Gibson will be featured with the Symphony on Friday (November 28) and Saturday (November 29) in Ford Auditorium at 8:30 p.m.

Because of Thanksgiving, the first of the two weekly subscription concerts is being given on Friday instead of the usual Thursday.
